

Index

Compiled by the Author

- Abdul Hamid: Kaiser kisses cheek of, 342
- Abdullah, Emir (later King): and Transjordan, 502, 511, 514, 518, 519, 524, 532, 536 n. 1, 545, 551, 552-4; his discussions with Churchill in Jerusalem, 559-62, 569-70, 572; Churchill defends his settlement with, 576, 580; possible time-limit to his rule, 583; 'amenable to reason', 588; and Churchill's Middle East policies, 596, 598
- Abrami, Léon: Churchill protests about, 272, 273
- Addison, Dr Christopher: and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 15-16, 24, 25, 26, 28, 32; and the Clyde munitions dispute, 35; and the skilled workers' dispute, 51; and the munition workers' strike, 127-8; and the continuation of the Coalition, 160 n. 1; and British policy towards Russia, 309, 317, 335; and Ireland, 664-5; and Churchill's abilities, 894
- Admiralty: Churchill seeks to defend his work at, 1-3, 6-7, 8-11, 15, 750-9
- Aga Khan: urges Britain to make peace with Turkey, 498
- Agar, Lieutenant: awarded the Victoria Cross, 308 n. 1
- Air Board: Churchill's possible Chairmanship of, 23-7
- Air policy: 67, 119, 144; Churchill responsible for, 197-218; and the Air policy—continued
- Cairo Conference, 544-5, 546, 547, 550-1; and Transjordan, 577; and the cross-Desert air route, 577-80; and Iraq, 596, 796-7, 799-800, 801, 802-4, 806, 810, 811; proposed for Palestine, 635; proposed against any possible Irish Republic, 705, 725-6, 741; and the Geddes 'axe', 769, 770; and the Chanak crisis, 830, 834, 855, 858, 868-9; 'a flying Terror', 910
- Air raid warnings: Churchill's advice on, 27-8
- Alexandretta: Churchill 'hot for an expedition to', 33
- Alfonso XIII of Spain: Churchill's message to, 108; at Deauville, 790
- Allenby, General Sir Edmund: ordered to attack, 84; in Egypt, 522, 537, 552
- Alliance Aeroplane Works: industrial dispute at, 124-5
- Allison, James: 866
- Alsace-Lorraine: 'the symbol & test of victory', 63; a possible compromise on, 71; to be evacuated, 164; its restoration essential, 171
- Amery, Leopold: and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 30; and the allocation of guns, 50, 51; and Churchill's visit to France in March 1918, 88, 101; gives Lloyd George advice on Churchill's future, 175; Churchill willing to accept as an Under-Secretary, 526;

- Amery, Leopold—continued
 takes part in the Under-Secretaries' revolt, 788 n. 1
- Anderson, Sir John (later Viscount Waverley): and Ireland, 686-7, 867
- Anderson, William: on Churchill's 'quality of imagination', 57
- Appeasement: Churchill an advocate of, in Europe and Russia, 385; in Ireland, 470, 664; in Turkey, 480; in the Middle East, 513, 598; in Europe, 608, 609; Churchill's plan for, involving Russia, 760; Churchill praises Loucheur's 'good plans of', 791; Churchill has 'no other object in view', 897
- Arabs, the: to be deserted, 71; and the San Remo conference, 482; and the Jews of Palestine, 484; their rebellion in Mesopotamia, 490-7; and the Turks, 501; and Transjordan, 502; Churchill on the need to appease the 'sentiment' of, 513; Britain's promise to, 528; Churchill's alleged 'low opinion of', 540; attitude to the Jews, 558-9; 'groundless apprehension' among, 561; protests against Zionism of, 562-4; Jewish attitude towards, 567; as soldiers, 569-70; 'angry', 571; clash with Jews, 585-6; Churchill critical of, 586-7; and Churchill's Palestine policy, 588-9, 594-5, 596, 597-8, 615-62; and 'the necessity of killing Jews', 645; 'a kindly and well-disposed people', 645; and the Iraq Treaty, 807, 818, 855-6
- Askwith, Lord: 702
- Asquith, Arthur: 103, 766
- Asquith, Herbert Henry: Churchill criticizes Government of, 6; and the Dardanelles Report, 8-9; and the Secret Session (1917), 16; and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 30, 31; Churchill writes to, 103-4; seeks return to two-Party system, 159; 'having a rough time', 174-5; should be assuaged, 176; critical of the anti-Bolsheviks, 357; and the Amritsar debate, 410; and the crisis of December
- Asquith, Herbert Henry—continued
 1916, 674; praises Churchill's Irish speech, 720; 'very upset', 766; 'he has suffered more than we have', 767; 'a wounding sight', 786; and the political crisis of October 1922, 855; criticizes the 'amateurs in Downing Street', 858; answered by Lloyd George, 864-5
- Asquith, Katherine: 135
- Asquith, Raymond: killed in action, 135 n. 1, 766
- Asquithians: 'kind & friendly', 13; Churchill 'loath' to associate with, 18; prepared to challenge Lloyd George, 167; Dundee a stronghold of, 169; Churchill's advice concerning, 176; Churchill's public criticisms of, 765-7; their possible future, 772; and the Labour Party, 794; pushed into fourth place in the 1922 Election, 888
- Australia: and the Chanak crisis, 825-6, 828-9, 846, 852
- Bagge, (Sir) J. Picton: 338
- Baird, Major J. L.: 190-1, 788 n. 1
- Baker, Newton D.: 90-1, 99
- Baldwin, Lucy: 864
- Baldwin, Stanley: 352 n. 1, 556, 768; and the fall of the Coalition, 864, 867, 870
- Balfour, A. J (later Earl): Churchill writes to, 37; 'rather uninterested', 81; 'ridiculously optimistic', 82; and Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 226-7, 243, 247-8, 249-50, 252, 255, 304, 321, 323, 356, 413-14, 423, 428, 439; and Ireland, 455, 457; and Turkey, 473; and Britain's promise to the Jews, 513, 564-5, 568, 619, 621, 624, 627, 635, 644, 649, 650; and Greece, 610; and the danger of Conservative hostility to Lloyd George, 794-5; and Iraq, 807, 812-13; and the fall of the Coalition, 867, 870
- Balsan, Colonel: 762
- Balsan, Consuelo: 762
- Banbury, Sir F. G. (later Lord): 208, 694, 738

- Barnes, G. N.: and the skilled workers' dispute, 53, 58-9, 64-6; and British intervention in Russia, 309, 312, 314
- Barnes, General (Sir) Reginald: 54, 68, 155
- Barton, Robert: 676
- Baruch, Bernard: and U.S. munitions production, 49-50, 59; and Chilean nitrates, 142
- Baxter, Sir George: 170
- Beardmore, Sir William: 35
- Beatty, Admiral of the Fleet Sir David (later 1st Earl): 198, 213, 370, 372-3, 388, 670, 769, 834, 840, 843
- Beaverbrook, 1st Baron: 'You have done immense service', 123; 'you are making a mistake', 169; and Bolshevism, 220; and Churchill's 'hostility' to Lloyd George, 581-2; and the death of Churchill's daughter, 612; and Ireland, 687; Churchill's holiday with, 761, 762, 764; describes Churchill's tendency 'all to the Right', 773; believes Churchill is 'determined to resign', 778; presses Churchill to go to Deauville with him, 788; awaits Churchill at Boulogne, 789; taken ill, 789-90; and the General Election of 1922, 874; and the search for a clear fiscal policy, 899
- Beckenham, Harry: 750, 871
- Bell, Alan: murdered, 449
- Bell, Gertrude: at the Cairo Conference, 549, 556
- Bellaire, Carlyon: 404, 408
- Belleek: 'battle of', 726-31, 736
- Bellman, (Sir) Harold: Churchill's 'courage and eloquence', 32
- Benckendorff, Constantine: 368
- Benn, W. Wedgwood: 201, 202, 206
- Bertie, Sir Francis: reports on Churchill's 'peculiar' views, 70-1; votes against Balfour Declaration, 650 n. 2
- Beynon, General Sir William: 403, 410
- Bin Saud, see Ibn Saud
- Birdwood, General Sir William: 68, 154
- Birkenhead, Lord: see Smith, F. E.
- Black, Sir Frederick: 33
- 'Black and Tans': origins of, 456, 458; actions of, in Ireland, 458-9, 460, 462-3, 465-6, 467, 468-9, 664, 706-7; to go to Palestine, 635, 647, 682; in Palestine, 868
- Blenheim Palace: 5, 148, 175
- Bliss, General: 103, 243
- Blumenfeld, R. D.: 815, 895
- Blunt, W. S.: 150, 682
- Bolsheviks: seize power in Russia, 66 n. 1, 75; their continuing successes, 166; Churchill an implacable critic of, 219; and the murder of Captain Cromie, 224-5; 'bloody and wholesale butcheries', 227; 'a mere fraction of the population', 229; 'the enemies of the human race', 246; 'foul baboonery' of, 257; 'like the vampire', 270; Churchill wants gas used against, 274; 'that foul combination of criminality and animism', 278; democrats or murderers?, 355; cannot be 'suppressed by the sword', 356; Churchill describes work of, 365; their growing respectability and desire for peace with England, 368; Churchill denounces methods of, 375; Churchill believes they represent 'a force of order', 377; and negotiations with Britain, 391, 397-8, 400, 412; Churchill 'violent against', 413; advance into Poland, 414-22; driven from Poland, 425-7; 'this nest of vipers', 429; 'this vile group of cosmopolitan fanatics', 440; and Turkey, 478, 610; and the Jews, 484; threaten Persia, 490-1; effect of Churchill's hostility towards, 506; and the Jewish immigrants in Palestine, 543, 568, 573, 585-6, 616-17, 618, 647, 647, 650, 658; 'these Jew Commissars', 760; and the British Labour movement, 774; Churchill's bitterness towards, 779, 782-4, 784-5; and the Chanak crisis, 844; Churchill contrasts philosophy of with his own, 902; 'a league of the failures, the criminals, the unfit, the mutinous...', 903;

- Bolsheviks—continued
 'committing unspeakable atrocities', 906
 Bombs and bombing: 54, 72, 137, 149, 156, 455, 490, 494, 585, 610, 705, 796-7, 801, 810, 913
 Bondfield, Margaret: 834 n. 1
 Bonham Carter, Sir Maurice: 138
 Bonham Carter, Violet: 277-8
 Borden, Mary: 235
 Borden, Sir Robert L.: 230, 581
 Boyd, General (Sir) G. F.: 471
 Brade, Sir Reginald: 445
 Brand, J. H.: 724
 Brand, R. H. (later Lord): 49
 Briand, Aristide: 518, 776
 Briggs, General Sir Charles: and Britain's Russian policy, 282, 289, 307-8, 363
British Weekly: attacks Churchill over Russia, 374
 Brock, Vice-Admiral Sir O. de B.: and the Chanak crisis, 827, 829, 835, 837, 850, 857
 Brown, James S.: 174
 Buat, General Edmond: 389
 Bullard, (Sir) Reader: 813, 815-16
 Bullitt, William C.: in Moscow, 276 n. 2
 Butcher, Sir John: 652, 653
 Byng, General Sir Julian: 86
- Cairo: the Middle East Conference at, 521, 531, 532, 533, 544-57; Churchill defends Conference decisions of, 576-9, 595-6; Sir Percy Cox recalls, 800-1
 Cambrai: battle of, 61, 62
 Campbell-Bannerman, Sir Henry: 674
 Canada: and the Chanak crisis, 828-9
 Capitalism, Churchill's view of: 173-4
 Caporetto: battle of, 53, 110
 Carey, Colonel G. G. S.: 97
 Carson, Sir Edward Henry: and Churchill's 'undoubted ability', 4; his War Cabinet system, 111; and the Amritsar debate, 403-4, 406, 407, 409; votes against Balfour Declaration, 650; and Ireland, 679
 Cavalry: Churchill critical of, 14; and tanks, 62
 Cavan, Lord: and Ireland, 711, 725;
- Cavan, Lord—continued
 and the Chanak crisis, 829-30, 832, 835, 838, 854
 Cave, 1st Viscount: 162
 Cecil, Lord Hugh (later Baron Quickswood): 212, 694, 702
 Cecil, Lord Robert (later Viscount): and the Bolsheviks, 224, 226, 230; and Ireland, 706; and the political crisis of 1922, 855
 Chamberlain, Austen: and the demobilization crisis, 183-4, 188, 189, 192; criticized, 206; and British policy towards Russia and the Bolsheviks, 240, 251, 271, 283, 289, 299, 300, 303, 317, 440; and Ireland, 453, 466, 470, 665, 666-7, 669, 672, 675-6, 681, 693, 696, 698, 699, 722, 723, 731, 733, 738; and the Middle East, 472, 483, 486, 516, 531, 578-80, 598; and Bonar Law's resignation, 555, 581; Curzon protests to, 593, 607; a possible successor to Lloyd George, 772, 773; and Lloyd George's desire to recognize Soviet Russia, 775-80; and growing Conservative hostility to Lloyd George, 794; and the Chanak crisis, 826, 832, 833, 838-9, 843, 844, 845; and the fall of the Coalition, 863, 864-5, 867, 870; praises Churchill's mastery of debate, 901; comments on Churchill's character, 907
 Chamberlain, Joseph: 674, 773
 Chamberlain, Neville: 693
 Channel ports: German threat to, 107
 Charteris, Evan: 459, 756
 Chartwell Manor: Churchill buys, 793-4; planned extensions for, 876
 Chequers: Churchill joins Lloyd George at, 311, 520-1; Ministers meet at, 591-2, 600; Lloyd George at, 728-9, 731
 'Cherub Peace Maker': Churchill exhibited as, 880
 Chetwode, General Sir Philip (later Lord): 733
 Chicherin, G. V.: 358, 423, 436
 Childers, Robert Erskine: 671
 Chile: nitrate supplies from, 142

- Churchill, Clementine: letters from her husband, 19, 20, 21, 67, 68-70, 98-9, 116-18, 132, 133, 134-5, 136-7, 141, 142, 143, 147, 148-9, 172, 174-5, 374, 385-6, 520-1, 525, 528-30, 533-4, 613-14, 643, 687, 688-9, 756-7, 757-8, 759, 761, 762, 764, 767, 769, 786-93, 810-11, 893, 901, 907, 908, 911; letters to her husband, 91, 134-5, 204-5, 328, 449, 471, 524-5, 533, 688, 745, 763, 766, 767, 787, 788, 789, 791, 910; accompanies her husband to Downing Street, 166, to Germany, 320, to France, 459, to Cairo, 544, 552, 556; her husband's air crash, 211; her brother's death, 579-80; her daughter Marigold's death, 611-14; and the murder of Sir Henry Wilson, 734; and her husband's polo accident, 781; represents her husband at Dundee during the 1922 election, 875-7, 878-80; her influence, 909-11
- Churchill, Diana: 762, 763; her difficult examinations, 788, 789
- Churchill, Lady Gwendoline: 766, 786
- Churchill, Henry Winston Spencer: and the 'bear' game, 18
- Churchill, John Strange Spencer: Churchill writes to, 2; Churchill visits, 47, 68, 116, 132; at Verchocq, 140, 147; with Churchill at Lille, 155; his mother's death, 604, 606
- Churchill, Marigold: 170, 521, 529, 537, 539; her death, 611-14, 633, 762, 763, 789, 792
- Churchill, Mary (Lady Soames): born, 793; at Dundee, 876
- Churchill, Randolph Frederick Edward Spencer: and the 'bear' game, 18-19; 'such a thin shrimp', 387, 521; 'very sprightly', 529; and his sisters, 539, 762; 'rather weak & weedy', 763, 789
- Churchill, Lord Randolph: 'a brilliant statesman', 602; his broad-minded Conservatism, 877; Churchill's biography of, 890
- Churchill, Lady Randolph: marries for the third time, 114-15; sells her house
- Churchill, Lady Randolph—continued
at a handsome profit, 521; dies, 601; Churchill's many letters of condolence following the death of, 602-6; Churchill recalls, 761
- Churchill, Sarah: 762, 763; 'continues to prosper', 788, 789
- Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer:
1916-1917, his desire for 'war direction', 1; 'the downfall of all my hopes & desires', 2-3; and the emergence of Lloyd George as Prime Minister, 3-4; 'nothing to be gained by eagerness', 4-5; and the Dardanelles Commission of Enquiry, 5, 6-7, 8-13, 15; feels 'quite powerless', 5; criticizes 'those dismal processes of waste and slaughter', 8; advocates mechanical warfare, 14; his possible return to the Cabinet, 15-16; advises a secret session, 16; visits France, 17, 19-22; Conservatives protest against, 23-4, 25; 'an active danger in our midst', 25; 'the distrust of him', 26; Lloyd George's growing support for, 18, 22, 26-7; joins Lloyd George's Government, 28; further Conservative protests against, 28-30; arrives at the Ministry of Munitions, 32-4; resolves a munitions dispute, 35-7; 'a floating kidney in the body politic', 37; his weekend work, 38-9; his first Munitions of War Bill, 39-40; in dispute with Lord Derby and Sir Eric Geddes, 40-2; his administrative reforms, 42-4; visits France, 45-8; with Sir Douglas Haig, 47; and the shell shortage, 48-50; 'a war of whole nations', 50; and industrial unrest, 51-3, 57-9, 63-6; visits France, 55-7, 59-60; and the search for steel, 60; and the value of Tanks, 61-2
- 1918: given 'an odious job', 65; his advice to Lloyd George, 66-7; answers newspaper criticisms, 67-8; in France, 68-71; his reflections on death, 70; his views on the post-war world, 71; his

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1918—continued

war plans for 1919, 72-3; on the need to criticize war policy, 73; opposes a negotiated peace, 74-5, 128-30; in France, 76-80; present at the front when the Germans open their attack, 77-80; returns to London, 80-1; his advice to Lloyd George, 81-2; 'a very grave and serious time', 83; sent by Lloyd George to France, 85-7; visits Haig's headquarters, 87-8; in Paris, 88-92; accompanies Clemenceau to the front, 92-9; reports to Lloyd George on the military situation, 99-102; sees the urgent need for American troops, 100-2, 104; advocates the use of poison gas, 105; his views on the continuing military dangers, 106-8; his reflections on munitions production, 109-10; returns to France, 110; seeks 'recognised regular power', 111-13; in France, 113; inaugurates a new air service, 113-14; his mother's third marriage, 114-15; in France, 116-17; opposes the transfer of men from the factories to the front, 119-21; his oratory and exhortations, 122-4; further industrial unrest, 124-8; in France, 131-41, 142-9; his reiterated demands for increased Tank production, 121, 144-6; 'the heavy crash of falling bombs rattles our windows', 147; 'thoroughly contented', 149; meets Siegfried Sassoon, 150-1; on a munitions tour in Scotland and the north of England, 152-3; returns to France, 154-5; nearly drives into the German lines, 156-8; worried about his political future, 159-64; his recollections of armistice day, 164-6; his part during the General Election of 1918, 167, 169-70, 172-3, 174-5, 178; his views on the future of Germany, 168-9, 170-1; appeals for an end to 'the selfishness and pettiness of daily life', 171-2; defends capitalism, 173-4; advises Lloyd George on the new

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1918—continued

Cabinet, 176-8; becomes Secretary of State for War, 179-80

1919: his demobilization scheme, 181-6; in dispute with Lloyd George, 186-9; in France, 189-91; and the Calais mutiny, 192-3; the Allies 'exhausted', 193; advocates moderation towards Germany, 194; defends himself against Lloyd George, 194-5; his work as Secretary of State for Air, 197-218; his early hostility to Bolshevism, 219-20; his early attitude towards Allied intervention in Russia, 221-7; describes the Bolsheviks as 'ferocious baboons', 227; urges a clear decision on policy towards Russia, 228-9; urges British help to Poland, 233; supports British intervention in Russia, 234-9; reiterates his plea for a clear policy, 240-2; his mission to Paris to seek an Allied decision on Russia, 243-56; 'Russia must be saved by Russian exertions', 257; criticized by Lloyd George, 258-60; comments on the lack of any 'will to win', 261; agrees to the Cabinet decision to withdraw from Russia, 262-3; his support from General Denikin in South Russia, 264-5; returns to France to discuss Russia with Lloyd George, 265-7; fears Bolshevik victories and disruption, 268-71; protests against France's withdrawal from North Russia, 272-3; obtains Lloyd George's approval to send reinforcements to North Russia, 273-4; appeals to the troops, 274-5; considers resignation, 275-6; his 'view of the future', 277; 'Kill the Bolshevik, Kiss the Hun', 278; seeks a more active policy in North Russia, 280-4, 287-8; wants Britain to recognize Admiral Kolchak in Siberia, 284-7, 288-9, 290-2; wants to send British supplies to General Yudenitch, 292; opposes political executions by the anti-Bolsheviks, 293; criticized, 295; warns against undue optimism, 296-7; his hopes for General Ironside's Kotlas operation, 298-302; defends his Russian policy, 302; puts his faith in General Denikin, 303-19; appeals to Clemenceau about South Russia, 320-1; criticizes British policy, 322; rebuked by Lloyd George, 323-5; defends himself against Lloyd George, 326-7; hopes to see the Bolsheviks 'definitely beaten', 328-30; again rebuked by Lloyd George, 331-3; again defends himself against Lloyd George, 333-5; bitter about British policy towards the Baltic States, 336-7; believes the Bolshevik regime is 'doomed', 337; urges help for Denikin, 338-9, 341-2; warns Denikin against anti-semitism, 342-3; wants to arm Poland, 344; writes of the 'wonderful progress' of the anti-Bolsheviks, 345; 'Victory is in sight', 346-8, 350-1; in dispute with Lloyd George, 354-5; defends his policy, 345-6; urges 'more vigorous' action against the Bolsheviks, 357-8; seeks to avert Denikin's defeat, 358-64; warns of 'the very great evils that will come upon the world' as a result of British policy towards Russia, 364; his policy towards Ireland during 1919, 443-7; his policy towards Turkey during 1919, 472-7

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1919—continued

1920: describes 'the agony of Russia', 365; defends General Yudenitch, 366; advises General Denikin to seek an armistice, 368-9; in Paris, 370-4; his Russian policy criticized, 374, and defended, 375; and Denikin's defeat, 376-7, 379-83; his 'evil policy' rebuked, 378; his advice to Lloyd George on European affairs, 384-5; in Paris, 385; on holiday near Bordeaux, 386-8; in Paris, 389-90; opposes British negotiations with the Bolsheviks, 391; hopes for a Polish victory over the Bolsheviks, 395-7; bitter about 'the uninstructed state of public opinion', 398; favours 'a comprehensive agreement' with the Bolsheviks, 399-400; orders the withdrawal of British troops from South Russia, 412-13; warns that Britain will soon be left 'quite alone', 414; discusses the possibility of aid to Poland, 415; supported by Lloyd George, 415-16; defends Polish policy, 417-18; fears 'a measureless array of toils and perils', 419; and the climax of the Russo-Polish war, 420-2, 427; urges the immediate expulsion of the Bolshevik negotiators then in England, 422-5, 428-30; his forecast for Europe, 426-7; seen as 'a bold, bad man', 430; continues to resist Lloyd George's plans for trade and negotiations with Soviet Russia, 431-41; decides to resign, 438, but dissuaded, 438-9; argues against the policy of 'frightfulness' in India, 401-11; defends military reprisals in Ireland, 447-8; writes of a 'diabolical streak' in the Irish character, 449; Lloyd George enlists the help of, 450; and the search for more troops to send to Ireland, 451; wants special tribunals to try murderers in Ireland, 452; advocates a firm policy against Sinn Fein, 452-6; and the actions of the 'Black and Tans', 456, 458-69; urges 'official' reprisals, 463-4; given a personal detective, 465; his advice on Ireland, to Shane Leslie, 461, and to the Archbishop of Tuam, 467-8, 470; supports a truce in Ireland, 470; urged by his wife to adopt a moderate policy towards Ireland, 471; urges the need to retain Constantinople, 477-8; urges peace with Turkey, 479, 480; advocates replacing troops by aircraft in Mesopotamia, 481-2, 483; his early interest in Zionism, 484;

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1920—continued

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1920—continued

sees no profit 'of a material kind' in Palestine, 485; reiterates his demand for peace with Turkey, 485-9; responsible for British policy in Mesopotamia, 490-7; makes several further pleas for peace with Turkey, 497-502; is advised to separate Transjordan from Palestine, 502-3; disagrees with Sir Maurice Hankey's account of a Cabinet conclusion, 503-4; warns of the cost of British rule in Mesopotamia, 504-5; opposes a policy of 'scuttle', 505; wants to leave the War Office, 505-6; argues in favour of a special Middle East Department, 507

1921: and the New Year's festivities, 507-8; and the establishment of a special Middle East Department, 508-9; seeks help from Lord Curzon, 510; seeks advice from Sir Percy Cox, 511-12; his plans to visit Mesopotamia, 509-10, 512-13, 517, 518, 521; criticized by General Haldane, 514-15; in France, 513-14, 515, 517-19; receives advice from T. E. Lawrence, 515-16; in dispute with Sir Percy Cox, 516-17; urges peace with Turkey, 517, 535-6, 540, 590-2, 600-1, 609-11; War Office hostility towards, 519-20; a picnic with Lloyd George, 520; his first visit to Chequers, 520-1; prepares to visit Cairo, 522-3; seeks to placate Curzon, 523-4; his social life, 525; in dispute with Curzon, 526-7, 528, 537, 593-4, 606-7; appointed Colonial Secretary, 530; forms his Middle East Department, 531; prepares agenda and policy for the Cairo Conference, 532-3, 537-9; introduces the Air Estimates, 540; Dr Weizmann seeks to influence, 540-1; leaves for Cairo, 543; at the Cairo Conference, 544-57; at the pyramids, 556; visits Gaza, 558; in Jerusalem, 559-72; at Tel-Aviv, 572-3; visits a Jewish settlement, 574;

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1921—continued

defends his Middle East settlement, 576-80; dissatisfied with his political position, 580-2, 587-8; his policy towards Palestine, 582-7, 588-90, 592, 594-5; his policy towards the Arabs, 596; his comments on the problems of Arab-Jewish relations, 597-8; gives 'an impression of power', 599; his mother's death, 601-6; urges 'appeasement' in Foreign Affairs, 513, 608-9; his daughter Marigold's death, 611-14; the development of his Palestine policy from June to December 1921, 615-41; his views on the Irish situation, 663; speaks as a conciliator, 664-7; opposes an Irish Republic in any form, 668-9; active in the Irish negotiations, 669-77; defends the Government's Irish policy, 677-81; urges swift transfer of power from Westminster to Dublin, 681-2; is 'full of hope and confidence' about Ireland, 683; his work on his war memoirs during 1921, 754-6; his policy towards Iraq, April-December 1921, 796-810; proposes special British initiative towards Russia, 760-1

1922: and the visit of the Arab Delegation from Palestine, 643-6; defends the Balfour Declaration, 646-60; in dispute with Lord Sydenham about Zionism, 660-2; accepts Ministerial responsibility for Ireland, 684; mediates between North and South, 685-9; explains the Government's Irish policy to the House of Commons, 690-3, 694-6; appeals for an end to violence, 696-9; active in the search for an agreement between North and South, 699-700; defends the agreement in the House of Commons, 701-2; believes the Irish have 'a genius for conspiracy', 703; his appeals to end pressure on the Irish Free State leaders, 704, 708-9, 711-13, 714-16, 718, 723; and the possibility of war

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1922—continued

with an Irish Republic, 705; defends the action of the 'Black and Tans', 706-7; reports to the King on the Irish situation, 713-14; protests to the Government of Northern Ireland, 716-17; warns the Irish of 'the stony indifference' of world opinion, 720; praised for 'a great act of statesmanship', 722; and the 'battles' of Belleek and Pettigo, 723-31; and Sir Henry Wilson's assassination, 733-5; again explains the Government's Irish policy to the House of Commons, 735-8; in search of a house in the country, 738-40; and the siege of the Four Courts in Dublin, 740-2; 'Ireland will be mistress in her own house', 743; his hopes for a united Ireland, 743-4; Collins appeals to, 744; and Collins' death in an ambush, 745-7; and the formal establishment of the Irish Free State, 748-9; his work on his war memoirs during 1922, 757-9; on holiday in the South of France, 761-4; his views on the continuation of Lloyd George's Coalition, 764-5, 770-4; criticizes the Asquithian Liberals, 765-7; Chairman of the Cabinet Committee on defence spending, 768-70; apologizes to Lloyd George, 770; takes the lead in opposing Lloyd George's policy of recognizing Soviet Russia, 775-80, 781-5; his accident at polo, 780-1; critical of Lloyd George, 786, 787; on holiday in France, 788-93; buys Chartwell, 793-4; forecasts Lloyd George's premiership 'drawing to a close', 795; supervises the negotiations for the Iraq Treaty, 810-19, 824-5; wants European Turkey to remain under Allied control, 820; wants the Allies to remain in Constantinople, 825; appeals for Imperial troops to defend the British position at Chanak against Turkish attack, 825-6; takes a leading part in the developments of the

Churchill, Winston Leonard Spencer

1922—continued

Chanak crisis, 827-58, 861; defends the Cabinet's Chanak policy, 859-60; his 'warlike policy' criticized, 860, 862; in dispute with Stanley Baldwin, 864; gives a dinner for Lloyd George's supporters, 865; taken seriously ill, 865-6; and the fall of Lloyd George, 867; in a nursing home, 868; conducts his election campaign from his sick bed, 869-70, 871-5, 877-8; represented in Dundee by his wife, 875-7, 878-80; goes to Dundee for the closing phases of the campaign, 880-8; defeated at the Polls, 887-92; his work, character and relationships during the six years of Lloyd George's Premiership, 893-915

Clarry, Reginald: challenges the Coalition, 863; elected, 866

Clauson, (Sir) Gerard: 620, 633, 636, 637

Clemenceau, Georges: becomes Prime Minister of France, 56; at Doullens, 83; and Churchill's visit to France in March 1918, 85-6, 89-102; 'full of complaints', 135; and the armistice, 164; and the Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 220-1, 243-8, 255-6, 272-3, 320, 361, 362, 373-4; spoken of with scorn, 385

Clémentel, Etienne: 59

Clive, (Sir) Robert: 292

Collins, Michael: raises secret loan, 445-6; and the Irish Treaty, 669-73, 675, 676, 679, 682, 684, 685-6, 687-8, 689, 690, 691, 694, 696-9, 700-1, 703, 704-5, 708, 709-12, 713-16, 717, 718-19, 720, 721, 723-4, 726-7, 729, 732, 733-6, 740-4; killed in an ambush, 745, 746, 747; his death followed by civil war, 748; a patriot, 881; and Churchill's defeat at Dundee, 887-8; his last message, 894

Compton-Rickett, Sir Joseph: rumours stimulated by, 75

Congreve, General Sir W.: and Transjordan, 502-3, 546-7, 549, 550,

- Congreve, General Sir W.—continued
 554–5; and the Jaffa riots, 585; and ‘Arab aspirations’, 615, 618; critical of Churchill’s Palestine policy, 635–6;
 and the ‘grasping policy’ of Zionist
 extremists, 631; and Ireland, 684
- Coningham, General F. E.: 491
- Conspiracy: Churchill believes in existence of, world wide, 433, 464, 912–13;
 Lord Curzon fears throughout Asia,
 437
- Constantine, King of Greece: 498, 502,
 600, 841
- Constantinople: importance of the capture of, 10; failure to capture, 50;
 Allied occupation of, 397, 472, 473,
 477, 485, 486, 487, 488, 495, 590–2;
 need to avoid ‘humiliating exodus’
 from, 827; and the Chanak crisis,
 828, 831, 839, 849–50, 854; and the Mudania Convention, 860–1
- Coote, Captain M.: 558
- Cope, (Sir) Alfred: and Ireland, 684,
 710, 713, 714, 727, 745, 746–7, 748
- Corbett, Sir Julian: 745–5
- Cornwallis, Colonel (Sir) K.: 552
- Cosgrave, William: 723–4, 746, 748, 894
- Costello, General E. W.: 569
- Cowdray, 1st Viscount: 24, 26
- Cox, Sir Percy: and the Middle East,
 493, 496, 497, 510–12, 512–13;
 threatens to resign, 515; further protests of, 516; Churchill explains policy to, 516–17, 522; and the Cairo
 Conference, 534, 545–9, 551, 552,
 556; and the Desert Air Route, 578,
 580; and Churchill’s policy in Mesopotamia (Iraq) from June 1921 to October 1922, 596, 610, 796–819, 824,
 855
- Craig, Captain C. C.: 693–4, 720
- Craig, Sir James: and Ireland, 455, 665,
 666, 674, 685–6, 687–8, 696, 698, 700,
 709, 710–12, 714, 716–17, 718, 719,
 723, 726, 732, 736–7, 743, 744
- Creedy, (Sir) Herbert: records Lord
 Derby’s protest, 28–9; and the Middle East, 512 n. 3, 522, 523 n. 1
- Crewe, Marquess of: 606, 613, 818
- Criccieth: Churchill visits Lloyd George at, 212, 301; Lloyd George issues a statement from, 778–9
- Cripps, Frederick: 790
- Cromie, Captain F. N. A.: murdered by Bolsheviks, 224–5, 392
- Cromwell: ‘the butcheries of’, in Ireland,
 692
- Crosland, Jessie: 557
- Crosland, J. B.: at the Cairo Conference,
 534, 547, 548, 549, 550
- Crowe, Sir Eyre: 761
- Curtis, Lionel: and Ireland, 700, 715,
 745
- Curtis Brown, Literary Agents: 751, 892
- Curzon, Earl (later Marquess): opposes
 Churchill’s return to the Cabinet, 23,
 25; and British policy towards the
 Bolsheviks, 263–4, 271, 272, 286–7,
 289, 298, 300, 304–5, 312, 315, 317,
 319, 323, 327, 328–9, 335, 337–8,
 343, 349, 351, 360, 366, 371, 372, 388,
 391, 392, 393, 398–9, 421, 431, 432,
 433, 437, 439, 440–1, 904; and the Middle East, 479, 480, 486, 493, 495,
 497, 501; and Churchill’s appointment as Colonial Secretary, 510, 511,
 513, 517, 523–4, 525, 526–7, 528,
 531–2; and the Cairo Conference,
 537; and Churchill’s Middle East policies, 580, 592–4, 598, 800–1, 806, 808, 812–13, 814; and British policy
 towards Turkey, 600–1, 808, 820–1, 824, 825, 826, 831, 833, 838, 843, 844,
 845–6, 851, 856, 858–9; and the death of Churchill’s mother, 601–3; in dispute with Churchill, 607; and the death of Churchill’s daughter, 611,
 612; and Ireland, 664–5, 679; and Russia, 760, 775, 777–8, 782, 784;
 and the fall of the Coalition, 865, 868,
 870; Churchill’s urgent appeals to,
 897; and Churchill’s character, 907;
 and Churchill’s grief, 913
- Curzon, Lady: Curzon complains to,
 528
- Czechs: in Siberia, 220–1, 224, 227, 240, 298, 332

- D'Abernon, Lord: 415, 416, 420
 Dallolio, General: Churchill negotiates with, 55-7, 60
 D'Annunzio, Gabriele: 298 n. 1
 Davidson, Randall (later Lord): 411, 623-4
 Davies, J. T.: 86, 187
 Davis, John W.: 356
 Davison, J. E.: 469
 Dawson of Penn, Lord: 865 n. 1
 Death penalty: Churchill opposes, for Calais mutineers, 193, and for Sinn Fein prisoners, 677
 Debeney, General: 92, 98
 de Bon, Vice-Admiral: 21 n. 1
 Deedes, (Sir) Wyndham: 553-4, 620-1, 631, 641, 659-60
 Defeatism: 'should be stamped out', 153
 Defence: Churchill advocates Ministry of, 211-13
 Defence of the Realm Act (D.O.R.A.): murder exempted from, 452
 de Forest, Baron: 534 n. 1
 Denikin, General A. I.: British military assistance for, 226, 236, 239, 241, 249, 250, 255, 257-8, 259-60, 262, 264, 266-7, 269, 271, 275, 277, 278, 279, 282, 285, 289, 295, 301, 303-19, 320-1, 323, 324-31, 332, 334, 335, 336; offers 'the shortest way to win', 337-46, 348; his retreat, 350-64, 366-8; 'impending defeat of', 369, 371; 'feared & hated', 373; loses British support, 376-7; loses Odessa, 378; Churchill's concern for, 380; Churchill's final telegram to, 381; driven from Russia, 382, 383, 388; resigns, 389, 396, 432, 438; Churchill's unwise reliance on, 761; Churchill's support for, 904
 Derby, 17th Earl of: opposes Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 23-4, 25, 28, 31; Churchill in dispute with, 40-2; and the howitzer shortage, 49; protests against Churchill's actions, 55-6; his social usefulness, 178; protests against a Churchill article, 418-19; and Ireland, 458, 663; and Turkey, Derby, 17th Earl of—continued
 501; Tory preference for, 771; refuses to serve under Lloyd George, 773, 774
 de Robeck, Admiral Sir John: 388, 434
 De Valera, E.: raises money in the United States, 446; must be 'put down', 450; British talks with, 663, 665-8; rejects British negotiations, 670, 675, 677, 679, 684, 689, 691, 697; opposes the Free State Bill, 703, 707, 708, 710, 713, 714, 715, 716, 718, 726, 729-30, 732, 735-6, 742, 745, 746, 747
 Devlin, Joseph: and Ireland, 447-8, 468-9, 701, 733
 Devonshire, 9th Duke of: refuses to serve under Lloyd George, 773, 774; takes office under Bonar Law, 870; Edward Marsh joins staff of, 871
 Disraeli: spirit of, 877
 Dizengoff, Meir: 573
 Docker, Dudley: Churchill's appeal to, 106
 Dominion Prime Ministers: Churchill's telegrams to during the Chanak crisis, 840, 842, 846-7, 851-2, 853-4, 856, 858, 859, 861
 Dublin: Sinn Fein Congress in, 443; Sinn Fein Parliament in, 445; policeman shot dead in, 447; Resident Magistrate murdered in, 449
 Duggan, E. J.: 700, 716
 Dundee: Churchill speaks at, 27; Churchill seeks re-election at (1917), 31, 34; and the 1918 election, 167-75, 178, 227; Churchill speaks at, 290, 668, 750, 895; Churchill's appeal to, 772-3; and the Election of 1922, 871-92
 Dyer, General R. E. H.: and the Amritsar debate, 401-11
 Dzerzhinski, Felix: 416 n. 1
 Eder, Dr M. D.: 640
 Edge, Captain (Sir) W.: 335
 Edward, Prince of Wales: 525, 682, 762
 Elles, General (Sir) Hugh: 145
 Elliot, Maxine: 124

- Ellis, Sir Charles: and the skilled workers' dispute, 52-3
- English, Sir Crisp: 865 n. 1
- Enver Pasha: 753
- Epstein, Elias: on Churchill's 'sympathy and understanding' towards Zionism, 575
- Esher, 2nd Viscount: and Churchill's visit to Paris (May 1917), 20, 21-2; and Churchill's 'fiery energy', 30; and Siegfried Sassoon, 140; his 'uncontrollable fondness for fiction', 757; and Churchill's defeat at Dundee in 1922, 890; mentioned, 80, 179, 184
- Essex, Adèle Countess of: 682-3, 756, 761, 764
- Evans, General C.: 622
- Faisal, see Feisal
- Fayolle, General: 19, 101-2, 117
- Feisal, King (first of Syria, later of Mesopotamia): 478, 479, 492, 502, 510-12, 514, 515-16, 518, 519, 524, 532, 537, 545-6, 548, 551, 553, 560, 596; and the negotiations for the Iraq Treaty, 797-819, 824, 855-6
- Fisher, H. A. L.: 160 n. 1.; 'the best of all yr discoveries', 177; and the demobilization crisis, 190; Lloyd George 'in a great hurry', 262; and Churchill's policy towards Russia, 275-6, 309-10, 311, 317, 329, 335-6, 354-5, 356, 357, 369, 378, 382, 388, 398, 429-30, 905; and the Russo-Polish war, 413, 414, 421; and the Amritsar debate, 402, 410, 411; and Ireland, 452, 453, 455, 461, 470, 471, 664, 666-7, 681, 693, 694, 705, 724, 726; and the Graeco-Turkish war, 497, 590; and 'a long wrangle' between Churchill and Curzon, 528; and Churchill's Palestine policy, 588, 627, 652; and the death of Churchill's daughter, 611; and Churchill's war memoirs, 757; praises a Churchill speech, 764-5; and the Geddes Committee, 768, 769, 770; and the future of the Coalition, 770-1, 772, 774; and aid to Russia, 775; and Fisher, H. A. L.—continued
- Iraq, 806, 811, 813; and the fall of the Coalition, 855, 863, 866, 870; and the Chanak crisis, 856-7, 860; and the 1922 election, 878, 890; and Churchill's character, 907
- Fisher, 1st Baron: Churchill writes to, 5; and the Dardanelles campaign, 12; and Clemenceau, 99; 'a queer Mongolian face', 151; and Churchill's war memoirs, 754
- Fisher, Sir Warren: 531
- FitzAlan, Viscount: and Ireland, 664, 665, 667, 676, 685, 705
- Fleming, Valentine: killed in action, 911
- Foch, Marshal: Churchill visits, 19-20; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 83, 85, 86, 92, 93-4, 102-3; appeals to Churchill for tanks, 120; and the armistice, 158, 164; and the demobilization crisis, 185; and Allied policy towards the Bolsheviks, 233, 243, 271, 372, 420; and the Middle East, 487, 800; and the Chanak crisis, 852
- Foggie, J. K.: 'Germany must pay', 168
- Foxcroft, Captain C. T.: 693
- France: Churchill's visits to, 17-18, 19-22, 45-8, 55-7, 59-60, 67, 68-71, 76-80, 86-104, 110, 113, 116-18, 131-41, 142-9, 152, 154-8, 189, 370-4, 384-90, 428-30, 513, 516-19, 580, 756, 761-4, 788-93; and the Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 220, 224, 233, 236, 251, 272-3, 275, 359, 361; occupies four German towns, 389-90; and the Russo-Polish war, 413, 415, 419, 420; 'unreasonable because she is terrified', 427; Lloyd George critical of, 429; and Turkey, 473, 486, 501-2, 601; and the Middle East, 510, 512, 513-14, 519, 524, 532, 551, 552, 576-7; and Iraq, 806, 807; and Britain's 'obvious' duty towards, 608-9; 'so brave & hard working', 767; Churchill urges 'no quarrel with', 784; and the Chanak crisis, 821, 825, 826, 831, 833, 836, 847, 858-9, 861

- Franklin-Bouillon, H.: 853, 856
- French, Field-Marshal Viscount (later Earl of Ypres): 80, 83, 137; and Ireland, 443, 445, 446, 447, 452, 464, 664; and Churchill's war memoirs, 754; and Churchill's resignation in November 1915, 766
- Frenchville, Captain W. R.: his death in South Russia, 367
- Furse, General Sir William: 55-7
- Gaida, General Rudolf: in Siberia, 283, 287, 299
- Gairloch: Lloyd George confers with his Ministers at, 668; further from London than Belfast, 706
- Gallacher, William: Churchill's Communist opponent at the Dundee election, 872, 874, 876, 878, 880, 883, 886; defeated, 887
- Gallipoli Peninsula: British occupation of, from 1919 to 1922, 591; Curzon and Churchill urge need to retain control at, 820; Lloyd George insists on British control at, 821; Cabinet decides to maintain defence of, 824; Churchill's hope of Imperial defenders for, 825-6, 832; Austen Chamberlain urges retention of, 831, 832; and the imminent defence of, 838, 839, 847, 852; and the League of Nations, 860
- Gapon, Father: murdered, 652 n. 1
- Garden cities: Clementine Churchill's plea for, 910
- Garroni, Marquis: 856-7
- Garvin, J. L.: 890-1
- Gas bombs and shells: Churchill's policy concerning, 54, 72, 73-4, 105; 'This hellish poison', 149; Churchill's own encounter with, 156; Churchill wants to use against the Bolsheviks, 274, and against the Arabs, 494; 'a Mustard Gas fiend', 910
- Gaza: Churchill's reception in, 558
- Geddes, Sir Auckland (later Lord): 309-10, 313, 352 n. 1
- Geddes, Sir Eric: critical of Churchill, 41; and industrial unrest, 64; on Churchill's 'great gift of expression', 73; and the demobilization crisis, 181-2, 188; and civil unrest in England, 370; and Britain's negotiations with the Bolsheviks, 428; notices Churchill's 'anger & irritation', 582; in dispute with Churchill, 768-70
- Gee, Robert: 'a vehement pro-Dardanellian', 70
- Geiger, Major G. J. P.: 515
- George V, King: and the San Remo discussions, 391; and Ireland, 665, 667, 671, 681, 693, 696, 699, 702, 713, 722, 738; and the fall of the Coalition, 870, 877, 907-8
- Germany and the Germans: and the battle of the Somme, 10; and the battle of Arras, 14; 'their system of militarism and Caesarism', 50; and the inevitability of 'a great offensive in the West', 62, 71; 'has got to be beat', 53; 'the industrious Hun', 70; Churchill's views on a possible peace settlement with, 71, 75; launch their March 1918 offensive on the western front, 76-81; continuing advances of, 85, 87; checked, 91; offer to abandon use of poison gas, 105; their possible threat to the Channel Ports, 106-9; begin a further offensive, May 1918, 115-18; the exponents of 'scientific barbarism', 123; Lord Lansdowne advocates peace with, 128; Churchill replies 'If we are steadfast, they must collapse', 129-30; Churchill writes, of those captured 'I could not help feeling sorry for them', 132; Churchill urges 'effectual guarantees' against, 153; and the armistice, 158-9, 164-6; Churchill's desire to help, on 11 Nov. 1918, 166; Churchill's questions on the future of, 168, 169; war guilt of, 170-1; and the Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 233, 254, 260, 278, 360; 'very impudent', 382; Churchill's plans and forecast concerning, 384-5, 426-7; French hostility towards, 390; and French fears of, 608; Britain's future relations with,

- Germany and the Germans—continued
608–9; the time for appeasement of 'not yet ripe', 791; Churchill's advice concerning, 895–6
- Gibbs, Philip: 914
- Gladstone, William: and Ireland, 680
- Gough, General Sir Hubert: his Baltic mission, 292, 293, 298, 307, 322
- Gouraud, General Henri: and King Feisal, 805
- Grattan: quoted, 470
- Greece and the Greeks: occupation of Smyrna by, 472–3, 479; Lloyd George's sympathies for, 467–7, 487–8, 535, 540, 609; 'a little weak people . . . kept all these years at full tension', 498; and the Treaty of Sèvres, 485–6; the cause of Britain's 'present misfortunes', 519; Churchill urges withdrawal from Anatolia by, 590–1; Churchill wants to put 'all forms of pressure' on, 600–1; take the offensive against the Turks in Anatolia, 816–17, 819; and the Chanak crisis of October 1922, 820–62, 865
- Greenwood, Sir Hamar: and Ireland, 452, 453, 455, 456, 457, 464, 466, 470, 530, 666, 667, 668, 669, 698; and the Chanak crisis, 826
- Gregorieff, Ataman: 342 n. 2.
- Gregory, J. D.: 350 n. 2
- Gretton, John (later Lord): 679, 720, 738
- Grey of Fallodon, Viscount: 613, 751; (when Sir Edward Grey), 753, 807, 844, 865, 872 n. 1; his possible leadership of an 'alternative' coalition, 855
- Griffith, Arthur: and the Irish Treaty, 669, 672–3, 675, 676–7, 682, 684, 685–6, 687, 697–9, 700–1, 704, 709–11, 714, 716, 717–18, 721, 723–4, 729, 731, 732; dies of a heart attack, 745; a patriot, 881
- Griffith-Boscawen, A. S. T.: 856
- Guest, Frederick Edward: Churchill's advice to, 16; Churchill's interview with, 26–7; and the continuation of the Coalition, 160 n. 1; and Churchill's demobilization scheme, 192; Churchill wants as Air Minister, 212; praises
- Guest, Frederick Edward—continued
Churchill's Irish speech, 681; takes Collins to lunch, 721; 'almost in tears', 762; and Tory hatred of Lloyd George, 771; favours 'evolution to the right', 772; and election speculation, 794; and Iraq, 811, 855; and the Chanak crisis, 854; and the 1922 election, 866
- Gwynne, H. A.: 782
- Gwynne, Rupert: 679–80
- Haifa: Arab demonstrations in, 559, 571
- Haig, Field-Marshal Sir Douglas (later Earl): and Churchill's visits to France, 21–2, 45–8; and the howitzer shortage, 49, 51; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 76–7, 79, 80, 83, 86–7, 94–5, 102–3; Churchill's supplies to, 109, 110; and Churchill's request for a 'permanent lodging' in France, 113, 118; and the British offensive of Aug. 1918, 131; and munitions policy, 136, 141, 143; 'vy appreciative', 147; Churchill congratulates, 152; and the demobilization crisis, 181–4, 189, 192; and the Allied intervention policy in Russia, 256
- Haj Amin, Mufti of Jerusalem: 583
- Haking, General Sir Richard: 350, 351
- Haldane, General Sir Aylmer: at Baghdad, 480–1, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494–5, 496–7, 510–11, 514–15, 517, 519, 522, 534, 545–9, 609, 800–4, 807
- Haldane, Viscount: 'you ought to give up flying', 210
- Hall, Lieutenant G.: one of Churchill's pilots, 114; his recollections, 138–41
- Hall, (Sir) John Hathorn: 633
- Hamid Bey: 849
- Hamilton, Sir Horace: 725
- Hamilton, Sir Ian and Lady: 890
- Hankey, Maurice Pascal Alers: finds Churchill disappointed, 6; finds Churchill 'in a chastened mood', 33; and Churchill's 'wonderful scheme', 73; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 81, 82, 83; does not exclude 'the possibility of disaster',

- Hankey, Maurice Pascal Alers—continued
 116; finds Lloyd George 'much annoyed', 186; and Allied policy against the Bolsheviks, 243-4, 246, 301, 391; and the assumption 'no great war for ten years', 320; and fears of civil unrest in England, 370; and Britain's negotiations with the Bolsheviks, 400, 439, 440-1, 906; and Ireland, 453; and the Middle East, 503-4, 509-10, 578, 621; and the Chanak crisis, 834-5, 840-1, 847-8, 862; and the fall of the Coalition, 867-8
- Harcourt, Sir William: 524
- Harding, H. Norman: and Churchill's search for a country property, 738-40; and Chartwell, 794
- Harding, President Warren G.: 508
- Hardinge, 1st Baron: 291-2, 847
- Harington, General (Sir) Charles: Churchill appeals to, 120-1; Churchill's Deputy Chief of the Imperial General Staff, 188; and Britain's intervention against the Bolsheviks, 236-7, 248, 260, 262, 274, 279, 284, 289, 292, 293, 382; and the Russo-Polish war, 415; and Ireland, 455; in Constantinople, 496; and the possibility of negotiations with Turkey, 808; and the Chanak crisis, 821, 824, 828, 829-30, 831, 832-5, 836 n. 2, 837-54, 856, 857, 860, 868-9
- Hartigan, Dr: 865 n. 1
- Henry, (Sir) Denis: 452-3, 665
- Hewart, Gordon: 160 n. 1, 669, 675-6, 731
- Hills, J. W.: and the skilled workers' dispute, 52-3
- Hirtzel, Sir Arthur: advises Churchill, 512, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 522; decides not to join the Colonial Office, 524
- Hitchcock, General B. F. B.: 188
- Hoare, Sir Samuel (later Viscount Templewood): on need to destroy Bolshevism, 295; and Ireland, 720; and the Honours debate, 787
- Hoare-Nairne, Colonel E. S.: 840
- Hodgson, (Sir) Robert: 296
- Hogge, J. M.: and North Russia, 272
- Holman, General (Sir) H. C.: and British policy in South Russia, 289, 306, 316, 330, 343, 348, 358-9, 360-1, 363, 366-7, 368, 369, 376-7, 380-1, 383
- Hornby, W. M.: 529
- Horne, Sir Robert (later Viscount): and the demobilization crisis, 182-3, 188; and civil unrest in England, 370, 372; and Britain's negotiations with the Bolsheviks, 398-9, 400, 428, 429, 436-7, 441; becomes Chancellor of the Exchequer, 555, 556, 581-2, 588; and Ireland, 665, 675, 726; Churchill's alleged designs against, 769; Churchill praises, 770; and Lloyd George's proposed negotiations with Soviet Russia, 776-7, 778; urges complete withdrawal from Iraq, 806; and the Chanak crisis, 830; and the fall of the Coalition, 870
- House, Colonel E. M.: 248, 252, 255-6
- House of Lords: Churchill opposes any increase in powers of, 900
- Hozier, Lady Blanche: 579-80, 763
- Hozier, William: 579-80
- Hudson, Sir Robert: 790
- Hughes, W. M.: and the Chanak crisis, 829, 832-3, 852
- Humbert, General: 101, 117
- Hunter-Weston, General Sir Aylmer: 'a plain blunt soldier', 69; occupies Douai, 154
- Hussein, King of the Hejaz (later in exile): 514, 518, 523, 532, 539, 545, 551-2, 553, 560
- Ibn Saud (also Bin Saud): 514, 522, 523, 532, 539, 551-2, 596
- India: disorders in, 195; Bolshevik threat to, 260, 268-9, 305, 327; troops from, in Iraq, 796, 801, 802, 809-10; and the Chanak crisis, 827; 'seditious extremism' in, 913
- Ireland: Churchill urges conscription for, 81, 82, 84; Churchill's responsibilities towards, 443, 445-6; the role of British troops in, 447-8, 449; and the 'Black

Ireland—continued

and Tans', 451-2, 456, 458-61, 462-4, 465, 706-7; possible use of bombs in, 455; firm British policy towards, 466-71; growth of conciliation towards, 663-8; Churchill's part in the conciliation of, 669-83; Churchill's negotiations with the leaders of, 684-90, 696-8, 699-701; Churchill's active search for a settlement in, 704-49; and the 'battle' of Belleek, 726-31, 736; and the battle of the Four Courts, 740-2; Churchill's parliamentary speeches on, 447-9, 468-9, 677-81, 688, 690-6, 698-9, 701-2, 706-7, 719-22, 735-8

Ironside, General (Sir) William Edmund (later Field-Marshal Lord): in command at Archangel, 231, 234, 248, 261, 263, 270, 274, 287, 290, 297-8, 299, 300-1, 311, 316, 332; and the Middle East, 534, 549, 802

Islington, Lady (Anne): 606

Islington, Lord: and Zionism, 649

Ismet Pasha (later İnönü): and the Chanak crisis, 852, 854, 857, 860

Israelites: Churchill draws modern parallel with, 172; and the portals of the 'new Jerusalem', 658

Italy: military disaster in, 53; munitions needs of, 54-7; food imports of, 59; 'one night may efface an army', 66; withdraws its troops from North Russia, 302; withdraws from the Caucasus, 304; and Turkey, 473, 486, 501-2, 591; and the Chanak crisis, 825, 831, 836, 861

Jackson, Rear-Admiral (Sir) Thomas: 755-6; 'quite torpid', 758

Jaffa: Arabs and Jews killed in, 585, 587, 588, 617, 636-7

Japan: and the Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 227, 243, 247, 254, 260, 268, 277, 309, 314, 319, 357, 363, 364, 379; Churchill warns of 'danger from', 607

Jerusalem: anti-Jewish riots in, 484; Herbert Samuel 'King' at, 514;

Jerusalem—continued

Churchill decides to visit, 522, 534; Churchill's visit to, 558-75; riots in, 637, 638

Jeudwine, General Sir H.: 466

'Jewish National Home': Palestine designated as, 482, 538-9; territorial problems of, 540-1; Arab hostility towards, 562-4; Churchill's defence of, 564-6; 'will be a blessing to the whole world', 570; and its exclusion from all lands east of the Jordan, 577, 583-4; temporary halt of immigrants to, 585-6; Churchill upholds, 594-5, 597-8, 616-18, 621, 622, 623, 624-7, 631, 634, 644-62

Jews: 'you must not have too many of them' in Cabinet, 176; Churchill warns the anti-Bolsheviks against persecution of, 293; Tsarist massacres of, 313; Churchill seeks to prevent massacre of, 330, 341-3, 351; their fate in Russia, 355; their position in Palestine, 483-4, 513-14, 538-9, 554, 561; Britain's promise to, 562; Arab attitude towards, 563-4; as soldiers, 569-70; Churchill's personal contact with, 572-5, 584; killed in riots in Jaffa, 585; and Churchill's Palestine policy, 586-9, 594-5, 597-8, 599, 615-62; '25,000 promiscuous people', 650; their prominence among the Bolsheviks, 760

Jolly George: dockers refuse to load, 395-6

Jones, Thomas: 186, 269-70, 370, 378, 452, 456, 491-2, 601, 663, 666, 667, 670, 671, 673, 675, 676-7, 700, 714, 715, 716, 726, 728, 780, 867, 909

Joynton-Hicks, Sir William: 405, 618-19, 643, 651-2, 653-4

Jusserand, Jean: 100

Kamenev, L. B.: Lloyd George's ultimatum to, 419; negotiates armistice, 420; Churchill seeks expulsion of, 422-5, 428-30

Kellaway, F. G.: has 'serious misgivings', 128

- Kent, Sir Stephenson: 39, 127
- Kenworthy, Joseph (later Lord Strabolgi): 408, 449
- Keppel, Alice: and the death of Churchill's mother, 605-6; and the Chanak crisis, 862
- Kerensky, Alexander: 658 n. 1
- Kerr, Philip Henry (later Lord Lothian): and British policy towards the Bolsheviks, 243-8, 249, 252, 354, 420; and Ireland, 453
- Keyes, Sir Roger: 725
- Kiggell, Sir Launcelot: 46-7
- King, Mackenzie: and the Chanak crisis, 829, 833
- Kirkwood, David: and the Clyde munitions dispute, 35-7
- Kitchener, Earl: and the Dardanelles report, 8-9, 13
- Knollys, Lord: 702
- Knox, General (Sir) Alfred: sent to Vladivostok, 221, 234 n. 1; at Ekaterinburg, 282, 283, 291; at Omsk, 297, 348; leaves Vladivostok for England, 363
- Kolchak, Admiral A. V.: and the anti-Bolshevik armies in Siberia, 228, 233, 249, 255, 257-8, 259-60, 270, 277, 278, 279, 280, 282, 283, 284-92, 295-9, 300, 312-13, 314, 318, 323, 324; 'his decisive battle', 326, 327, 329, 332, 334, 335; and Denikin, 337, 338, 343; his detractors, 344; advances, 346; retreats, 356; 'losing', 357; 'broken up', 359; flees eastwards, 360; taken prisoner, 363, 369; executed, 377; Churchill's unwise reliance on, 761; Churchill's support for, 904
- Krasnoff, General P. N.: 239, 249
- Krassin, Leonid: and Britain's trade negotiations with the Bolsheviks, 391, 399-400, 412-13; and the Russo-Polish war, 419, 420; and Churchill's efforts to expel from England, 422-5, 428-30; opens negotiations in London, 441
- Kühlmann, Richard von: 50-1
- Kun, Bela: seizes power in Budapest, 269, 321; flees from Hungary, 392-3
- Labour Party: Churchill's attitude towards, 71, 365-6, 765, 772, 774, 785, 795, 905; its attitude to Churchill, 295, 297, 321; Austen Chamberlain's attitude towards, 864; and the 1922 election, 869, 872, 873-4; and 'Britain's downfall', 877-8; and the reduction of Britain to a 'bear garden', 833; replace the Liberals as the main Opposition party, 888
- Lamb, Sir Harry: 853-4
- Lambert, George (later Lord): 395, 397, 754
- Lane-Fox, George (later Baron Bingley): 742
- Lansdowne, 5th Marquess of: Churchill criticizes peace suggestion of, 128-30; mentioned, 162; supports Balfour Declaration, 650 n. 2
- Lansing, Robert: 248
- Laski, Harold: and Ireland, 675-6
- Lauder, Harry: 96
- Lavery, Lady (Hazel): 748
- Lavery, Sir John: 386
- Law, Andrew Bonar: and Churchill's search for Cabinet Office in 1917, 4; Churchill's dispute with, 15; his 'mournful face', 18; and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 23, 28, 30, 42; opposes Churchill's visit to Foch, 86; 'facing the storm all right', 88; Churchill's advice on, 176; and Churchill's move to the War Office, 179; and the demobilization crisis, 187-90; and British policy towards Russia and the Bolsheviks, 265, 287, 298, 300, 318, 352 n. 1, 360, 371, 391, 397, 400, 413-14, 420, 421, 423, 428-30, 437, 440; and the Amritsar debate, 401, 410, 411; and Ireland, 450-2, 461, 464, 674, 738, 881; and Turkey, 486; Churchill appeals to, 526; resigns, 555; and the death of Churchill's daughter, 612; 'stroking' Beaverbrook, 762; and Churchill's resignation in November 1915, 766; and Churchill's possible resignation in March 1922, 778; and the fall of the Coalition in October 1922, 858-9,

- Law, Andrew Bonar—continued
 863, 867; becomes Prime Minister, 870, 871; Churchill comments on, in his election address, 877
- Lawrence, General Sir Herbert: 87, 94
- Lawrence, M. R.: 556
- Lawrence, T. E.: becomes Churchill's adviser on Arabian affairs, 510, 514, 515-16, 527-8, 532, 534, 538; at the Cairo Conference, 544, 545-6, 549, 552, 553, 556; meets Abdullah in Transjordan, 559; seeks Arab-Zionist reconciliation, 587; his visit to Iraq vetoed, 813-14; resigns, 814-15; sends Churchill sympathy and advice after the 1922 election, 889-90; on Churchill's character, 895
- Layton, Walter: Churchill's questions to, 38; with Churchill in France, 146-7
- League of Nations: Churchill on importance of, 174; Russia a necessary part of, 254, 259; and Mesopotamia, 512, 516, 537, 591; and Palestine, 538-9, 552, 628, 659-60; and Saudi Arabia, 551; and Ireland, 675; and the negotiations for the Iraq Treaty, 798, 804, 805, 806, 814; and the Dardanelles, 860
- Lee of Fareham, Lord: 520 n. 1, 529; and the Chanak crisis, 821, 826, 830, 831, 834, 835-6, 838-9, 844
- Lefevre, A. J.: Churchill's conversation with, 385, 389-90
- Lenin: 'a traitor', 149-50; War Cabinet threaten 'reprisals' against, 225; a vision of his triumph, 234; House of Commons attitude towards, 276; atrocities committed by, 278; 'international conceptions' of, 286; on need to drive Kolchak across the Urals, 296; his victory envisaged, 310; his ruin 'indispensable', 321; and the 'fate' of the revolution, 325; and Denikin, 329; and the Cossacks, 350; his instructions to Trotsky, 352; Churchill's description of, 355-6; his likely triumph, 360; Churchill speaks of theories of, 365; his extending authority, 370; his 'diabolical' pur-
- Lenin—continued
 pose, 375; and Bolshevik intentions towards England, 423, 424; and the IRA, 715; his illness, 789; Churchill summarizes the aims of, 903
- Leninism: Churchill urges 'a marked aloofness from', 499
- Leslie, General G. A. J.: 491
- Leslie, Colonel Sir Jack: 697
- Leslie, Lady (Leonic): 697
- Leslie, (Sir) Shane: 461, 604
- Leveson-Gower, Lord Alastair: 613, 614
- Lewin, Schmarya: 619
- Liebknecht, Karl: 375
- Lille: entered by the British, 154; Churchill visits, 155
- Lindley, (Sir) Francis: 299
- Litvinov, Maxim: 'a mischievous crank', 392, 423
- Lloyd, General Sir Francis: 370
- Lloyd George, David: finds no place for Churchill in his Government, 2; his 'aptitude for war', 3; and Churchill's desire for Cabinet office, 3-4; declines Churchill's advice, 7; sends Churchill Dardanelles report, 8; Churchill sees 'a good deal of', 13; his work praised, 14; Churchill criticizes Government of, 15; and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 16-18, 22, 23-31, 33, 34, 41, 44; and war policy (1917), 47, 53; and munitions policy, 55; Churchill appeals to, 64-5; Churchill's advice to (Jan. 1918), 66-7; and Churchill's Tank proposals, 73-4; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 80-2, 84; and Churchill's special mission to France, 85, 89-92, 95, 99-100, 101-3; Churchill's continuing advice to (April-June 1918), 106-8, 111-12, 118-19; Churchill appeals to, 120, 121; and the munition factories' strikes (July 1918), 127-8; Churchill writes to about German shell superiority, 133-4; and about munitions policy, 136-7; and about manpower policy, 144-5; and about Tanks, 145-6; seeks Churchill's support,

Lloyd George, David—continued

159-60; upsets Churchill, 160-4; and the armistice, 166; and the 1918 election, 167, 175-9; and the demobilization crisis, 183-93, 194-6; and Churchill's position as Secretary of State for Air, 198-9, 205; and Churchill's plan for a Ministry of Defence, 212-13; sends British troops to Russia, 220; his policy towards Russia, 224, 227, 229-30, 233-41; and Churchill's mission to Paris, 243-56; and Churchill's Russian policy, 257-400; and the Amritsar debate, 401, 402-3, 404, 410-11; seeks negotiations with Russia, 412; and the Russo-Polish war, 413-17, 418-22; and Churchill's demand for the expulsion of Kamenev and Krassin, 423-5, 428-30; and Churchill's desire not to hamper the anti-Bolsheviks, or to trade with Soviet Russia, 431-42; and the Government's Irish policy, 443-71; and the Government's policy towards Greece and Turkey, 472-89; and the Arab revolt in Mesopotamia, 490-5; and Churchill's demands for peace with Turkey, 497-502, 519, 590-1, 600-1, 610-11; and the need for economy in the Middle East, 503; the effect of his disagreements with Churchill, 506; gives Churchill authority over Palestine and Mesopotamia, 507-10, 512, 514, 527; 'evasive, elusive & indefinite', 521; and the Cairo Conference, 547-8, 549-50; Churchill's discontent with, 580-2; wishes to maintain British control at the Dardanelles, 590; suggests offering Palestine and Mesopotamia to the United States, 592; and Churchill's disputes with Curzon, 593-4, 607; and the death of Churchill's mother, 603; and Churchill's Palestine policy, 617, 621-2, 627, 634-5; and the Government's policy in Ireland during 1921, 663-83; and the Irish problem during 1922, 687-8, 697, 700, 707-8, 709-10, 723; and the 'battles' of

Lloyd George, David—continued

Belleek and Pettigo, 728-31; and the murder of Sir Henry Wilson, 733-4; and Bonar Law's hostility to the Irish Treaty, 738; and the Government's Irish policy after the death of Collins, 745-9; and Churchill's war memoirs, 752-3; 'singularly tame', 762; and Churchill's defence of the Coalition, 765; Churchill apologizes to, 770; Churchill's advice to, 771-2, 774; Churchill's fierce opposition to the Russian policy of, 775-80, 782-5; 'as timid as a hare', 786; 'the worst speech of his career', 787; and the negotiations for the Iraq Treaty, 811-13, 817-19; and the Chanak crisis, 820-62; and the fall of the Coalition, 863-7, 868, 870; Churchill's support for during the 1922 Election, 871, 873, 881; Churchill's advice to, and relations with during the six years of his premiership, 893, 895-7, 898, 899-900, 903-6, 907-9, 914
 Locker-Lampson, Godfrey: 787
 Londonderry, Marquess of: Churchill seeks office for, 178; nearly killed in an air crash, 210-11; becomes Churchill's Under Secretary of State for Air, 214; and Ireland, 700, 710, 717, 743; 'I wish you would somehow become P.M.', 865; and Churchill's defeat at Dundee, 888-9
 Londonderry, Lady (Edith Chaplin): 'good people are so scarce', 210-11
 Long, Walter Hume (later Viscount): opposes Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 29, 42; Churchill's advice concerning, 177; and the demobilization crisis, 188; friction with Churchill forecast, 197; Churchill defends himself against, 198-9, 200-1, 202; at the Admiralty, 212, 307, 308, 320, 370, 372, 429; and Ireland, 454, 455; and Turkey, 486; and Churchill's request to see secret telegrams, 525; supports Balfour Declaration, 650 n. 2; praises Churchill's Irish policy, 707
 Loucheur, Louis: Churchill meets,

- Loucheur, Louis—continued
 21 n. 1, 48; Churchill negotiates with, 55-7, 60; at Doullens, 83; and Churchill's visit to France in March 1918, 89, 92, 94-5, 98, 99; Churchill protests to, 105; Churchill's request to, 110; appeals to Churchill for Tanks, 120; in conference with Churchill, 135, 137-8; Churchill warns about Russia, November 1919, 359-60, 905; Churchill dines with, 513, 791
- Ludendorff, General: 382, 384
- Lullenden, Sussex: Churchill relaxes at, 18-19; Churchill sees Lloyd George at, 34; Churchill works at, 38-9, 122; Churchill visits Lloyd George from, 53; Clementine Churchill at, 91, 117-18, 138; Churchill flies near, 131
- Lytton, Lady (Pamela): 611, 747, 795
- Mabowitz, Goldie (Golda Meir): 646 n. 1
- Macaulay: his warning quoted, 409
- Makhno, Nestor: 342 n. 2, 351-2, 354
- Makino, Count Nobuaki: 247, 255
- Malleson, Major-General: 234 n. 1
- Malone, C. J. L'Estrange: 355, 433-4
- Mamontov, General K. K.: 325, 329
- Mangin, General: 137
- Mannerheim, General Carl: 287, 288, 307, 322, 363, 379
- Marat: 375
- Marchlewski, Julian: 416 n. 1
- Marden, Major-General T. O.: 829, 831, 849, 850
- Marlborough, 1st Duke of: 582
- Marlborough, 9th Duke of: 116
- Marlowe, Thomas: 587-8
- Marriott, (Sir) J. A. R.: 656
- Marsh, Edward Howard—continued
 on the dangers of impatience, 5; at the Ministry of Munitions, 43; in France with Churchill, 45-8, 138; conveys Churchill's 'reproaches', 148; and Churchill's interview with J. C. Squire, 148; introduces Siegfried Sassoon to Churchill, 150-1; accompanies Churchill to France, Oct. 1918, 154-8; 'in slight suspense', 179; 'settling down by degrees', 184; and Boris Savinkov, 422; and T. E. Lawrence, 510, 515; and the Cairo Conference, 522, 555; at the Colonial Office, 651, 748; and Churchill's war memoirs, 758-9; and Churchill's serious polo accident, 781; Churchill goes to France with, 788, 791, 792; and Churchill's appendicitis, 865; and the fall of the Coalition, 871; and Churchill's defeat at Dundee, 890; on Churchill's character, 895
- Mary, Queen: 665
- Massey, William: and the Jewish National Home, 617-18
- Masterton Smith, Sir James: at the Ministry of Munitions, 43; and the future administration of Mesopotamia, 512, 518, 522, 523, 527-8; and Palestine, 639, 646; and Ireland, 710, 715, 745; and Churchill's war memoirs, 754-5; and the fall of the Coalition, 867-8
- Maurice, General Sir F. B.: 80, 82, 84, 90
- Maxse, General (Sir) Ivor: 46
- Maynard, General (Sir) C. C. M.: in command at Murmansk, 231, 234, 263, 270, 282, 283, 290, 311, 316
- Meerovitch, Menaché: 573-4
- Mehmed VI, Sultan of Turkey: 477
- Meighen, Arthur: and the Jewish National Home, 616-17
- Meinertzhagen, Colonel Richard: Churchill's Middle East adviser on military affairs, 582, 583, 598, 617, 622, 635, 636-7, 637-9, 641, 647, 660, 801, 808, 810; and the Chanak crisis, 857; and Churchill's departure from the Colonial Office, 870
- Mesopotamia: to be given up, 71; Churchill's air control scheme for, 216-18; cost of, 472, 473, 476, 478, 480-2; becomes a British Mandate, 482; danger to, 488; Arab revolt in, 490-7; Cabinet discuss future of, 504; and Churchill's appointment as Colonial Secretary, 507, 508-9; status of, 512; Feisal willing to become King of, 515, 596; Churchill's proposed

Mesopotamia—continued

- visit to, 509-10, 512-13, 517, 518, 521; and the Cairo Conference, 538, 544-51, 556-7; and the Desert Air Scheme, 577-9, 580; Churchill's policy towards, from June 1921 to October 1922, 595-6, 609-10, 796-819, 824, 855-6; and the Chanak crisis, 830, 835, 852, 854
- Midleton, 9th Viscount: 731-2
- Military Service Acts: and strike-breaking, 126-8
- Millar, J. D.: Churchill angered by, 67-8
- Miller, Lieutenant-Colonel E. D.: 781 n. 1
- Miller, General Y. K.: in North Russia, 316, 383
- Millerand, Alexandre: 373-4, 380, 420, 487, 513-14
- Mills, Eric: 648
- Milne, General Sir G. F. (later Lord): 303-4, 322, 376, 381, 388, 412-13, 420, 476-7, 479, 496
- Milner, 1st Viscount: opposes Churchill's return to Cabinet, 24; and the skilled workers' dispute, 53, 57-8, 65; 'disappointing', 81; at Doullens, 83; and Irish conscription, 84; and Churchill's visit to France in March 1918, 92; and Churchill's appeal for Tanks, 121; Churchill's advice concerning, 177; and the Bolsheviks, 226-7, 234, 243, 299, 352 n. 1, 398, 440; responsible for Palestine, 485; retires from public life, 507; describes Churchill as 'keen, able & broad-minded', 520
- Mironov, Philip: joins Bolsheviks, 354 n. 1
- Mohamed Osman: critical of Churchill's attitude to the Arabs, 566 n. 1
- Mond, Sir Alfred (later Lord Melchett): 341-2, 619, 627, 641, 647, 668, 768, 856, 873, 878, 892
- Montag, Charles: 792-3
- Montagu, Edwin: becomes Secretary of State for India, 28, 29, 30, 31; and the Clyde munitions dispute, 35; and

Montagu, Edwin—continued

- Lloyd George's efforts to win Churchill's support, 159-60; his importance, 176; and Churchill's Russian policy, 258, 298, 371-2; and the Amritsar debate, 401-11; and Moscow's imperial ambitions, 440, 478; and Turkey, 486, 498; and Mesopotamia, 497, 806; and the Middle East, 514, 527; 'anti-Zionist', 627; and Ireland, 665, 668; and the Cabinet changes of 1916, 766; and the Geddes Committee, 768; and the future of the Coalition, 771; resigns, 773; and Churchill's character, 907, 908
- Montgomery, Colonel (later Field-Marshal Viscount): 155 n. 1
- Moore-Brabazon, Colonel J. T. C. (later Baron): 201
- Mordacq, General: 95
- Morel, E. D.: Churchill's Labour opponent at the Dundee election, 872, 874, 875, 878, 880, 881, 886; defeats Churchill, 887
- Morgenthau, Henry: 623 n. 2
- Morin, Charles: painter, 515
- Morley, Viscount: 686
- Mudania: Conference at, 852-3, 854, 857-9; Convention of, 860-1, 864
- Mulcahy, General R. J.: 746
- Munro, Robert: 160 n. 1, 664
- Munro, Sir Thomas: 35
- Murray, Sir Oswyn: 752
- Musa Kasim Pasha: 564, 625-9, 640
- Mussolini, Benito: 879 n. 1
- Mustafa Kemal Pasha (later Atatürk): 472-3, 476, 482, 486, 487, 488, 497, 498, 501-2, 504, 505, 590-1, 600-1, 807, 821, 825, 826, 828, 830, 831, 834, 837-54
- McCurdy, Charles: 771, 773
- Macdonald, D. J.: 869
- Macdonogh, General Sir George: 100, 183-4, 188-90, 262, 263, 279, 415, 451, 459, 684, 893
- McKenna, Reginald: Churchill's hatred of, 18, 909
- McKeown, Shane: 709, 730

- Mackinder, Sir Holford: 375-6
 Maclay, Sir Joseph: 54-5, 59-60, 370
 Maclean, J. B.: 134
 Maclean, Neil: 785
 Macmillan, Sir Frederick: 751
 MacMunn, General Sir G.: 473, 476, 480
 Macnamara, T. J.: 668, 772
 Macpherson, James Ian: 446, 447, 450
 Macready, Sir Nevil: and Ireland, 449, 450-2, 456, 458, 460, 463, 471, 667, 689, 710, 714, 740
 McSwiney, Terence: on hunger strike, 457; dies, 458
- Napoleon: Churchill and, 18, 29; Britain and, 896, 914
Nation: House of Commons debates articles in, 14-15
 Nelson: Churchill compared with, 29
 Newfoundland: and the Chanak crisis, 831, 832
 Newman, Sir George: 37
 Newspapers: listed alphabetically in the List of Sources (Part 3): 937-8
 New Zealand: and the Chanak crisis, 825-6, 828-9, 832
 Nicholson, A. P.: 191
 Nitti, Francesco: 372, 380
 Norman, Sir Henry: 21
 Northcliffe, 1st Baron: his 'malevolent press', 2; congratulates Churchill, 26; Churchill works with, 34, 37, 49; his papers critical of Churchill's promotion, 179-80; supports Churchill's demobilization scheme, 191; further newspaper criticism, 197-8; a possible Air Minister, 205; his press 'persistently hostile', 390; and Churchill's Middle East policy, 587-8, 599; critical of Churchill's Palestine policy, 648; his final illness, 786, 789, 790
 Northcliffe, Lady: 790
 Norton-Griffith, Sir J.: 657
 Novello, Ivor: 45 n. 1
- O'Connell, General J. J.: kidnapped, 740
- O'Connor, Rory: 709, 710, 742
 O'Dwyer, Sir Michael: 403, 410
 O'Higgins, Kevin: 700, 701
 Oil: Palestine without, 572; and United States pressure on Iraq, 806; and Britain's need to remain in control of, 818
 Oliphant, (Sir) Lancelot: 837
 O'Reilly, William: 'his fatuous verbosity', 343-4
 Ormsby-Gore, William (later Lord Harlech): 526-7
- Paderewski, Ignacy Jan: 288, 329, 344
 Page Croft, General H. P. (later Lord): 407
 Painlevé, Paul: and Churchill's visit to France (May 1917), 17-18, 21; forms Government, 47; falls from power, 56
 Palestine: to be given up, 71; British troops in, 181, 472; unrest in, 195; need for economies in, 476, 478; becomes a British Mandate, 482; Arab-Jewish friction in, 483-4, 484-5; danger to, 488; and the problem of Transjordan, 502-3; and Churchill's appointment as Colonial Secretary, 507, 509; Feisal willing to abandon 'all claims of his father' to, 515; and the Cairo Conference, 533; territorial problems of, 538-9, 540-1; Cairo Conference discussions concerning, 552-5; Churchill reaches, 558; Arab protests in, 559; the future of Arabs in, 561; 'no question of setting up a Jewish Government' in, 562, 'belongs to the Arabs', 563; 'should not be separated from her sister States', 564; Churchill supports a Jewish National Home in, 564-6; Jewish colonization in, 567-8, 584; Churchill's policy towards, from May 1921 to October 1922, 588-9, 594-5, 597-8, 599, 615-62; Zionists bring 'a good gift' to, 655
 Parliamentary debates: listed under Hansard in the List of Sources: 937
 Passchendaele: battle for, 53-4; 'this vast cemetery', 70
 Patterson, chauffeur: 154

- Patteson, Captain Cyril: pilots Churchill to and from France, 113-14, 116, 118, 142, 143, 148
- Peel, Viscount: 860
- Pellé, General M.: 831, 843, 856-7
- Percy, General (Sir) J.: 414
- Perks, Sir Robert: 173
- Pershing, General: 90-1, 103, 121 n. 1, 210
- Persia, Shah of: 'parting with his subjects' cash', 790-1
- Pétain, General: at Doullens, 83; at Beauvais, 98, 101
- Peter the Great: and Russian territorial ambitions, 426
- Petliura, Simon: 339, 342 n. 2
- Pettigo: 'battle of', 726, 730-1, 736
- Pichon, Stephen: 243, 247, 272
- Pilkington, R. R.: one of Churchill's opponents at the Dundee election, 875; 'our new friend', 877; supported by the local Press, 886; defeated, 887
- Pilsudski, Joseph: 393, 413
- Poincaré, Raymond: 776, 833, 847, 860
- Poison gas: see Gas bombs and shells
- Poland: 'must be reconstituted a nation', 171; 'bound to be anti-Bosch as well as anti-Bolshevik', 344; negotiates with the Bolsheviks, 357-8; Churchill see as 'the only possible allies' of the anti-Bolsheviks, 361-2, 368; Britain to give no aid to, 376; launches an offensive against the Bolsheviks, 393, 395; and Bolshevik ambitions towards, 413; and the Russo-Polish war, 414-22, 425-7, 432-3
- Poole, Major-General: in the Caucasus, 234 n. 1
- Porch, Montagu: marries Churchill's mother, 114-15; and Lady Randolph's death, 603
- Portugal: her troops bear brunt of German attack (April 1918), 106; 'rather a dirty brat', 135
- Pratt, (Sir) John: 866, 876, 879
- Prinkipo: proposed all-Russian conference at, 236-7, 240-1, 244-51, 253, 255, 266, 423
- Punch: Churchill 'as pleased as', 47
- Pyramids, The: Churchill visits, 556; Churchill compared with, 599; Churchill's visit to, recalled, 890
- Radcliffe, General (Sir) Percy P. de B.: and the intervention against the Bolsheviks, 248-9, 252, 262, 263 n. 1, 270, 279, 285, 299-300, 329, 381, 396; and the Russo-Polish war, 415, 425; and Ireland, 461; and the Middle East, 477, 549, 800
- Raffet Pasha: 869
- Rawlinson, General Sir Henry: on the western front, 92, 94-5, 97, 102, 131-2, 136; sent to North Russia, 310-11, 315-16, 326, 383; with Churchill on holiday, 384-7; in India, 525-6
- Reading, Earl (later Marquess): 101, 102, 160 n. 1, 176, 360, 530, 563
- Rees, Sir John: and Zionism, 618
- Repington, Colonel C. à C.: 115
- Richmond, Ernest: 642
- Riddell, Sir George Allardice (later Lord): takes Churchill a message from Lloyd George, 3-4; and the Dardanelles report, 8-9; and Churchill's first days at the Ministry of Munitions, 34; and Churchill's air crash, 210; and Churchill's Defence scheme, 213; and Churchill's policy towards the Bolsheviks, 251, 371; and Krassin, 391 n. 2; and the Russo-Polish war, 395, 413, 416; and the Graeco-Turkish war, 487-8; watches Churchill and Lloyd George 'at play', 508; and Lloyd George's view of Greeks and Turks, 611; and Ireland, 687; and Churchill's memoirs, 752
- Rishon le-Zion: Churchill's visit to, 573-4, 597
- Ritchie, Sir George: 170, 172, 174, 350, 496, 879
- Roberts, Lieutenant C. D.: in South Russia, 306, 346
- Roberts, George: 127, 370
- Robertson, James: 859, 869, 886, 887
- Robertson, Sir William: 40, 51, 73, 182

- Robespierre: 375
- Robey, George: 96
- Rosebery, 5th Earl of: 604-5
- Rothermere, 1st Baron (later Viscount):
and Churchill's 'driving power', 24-5;
Churchill's advice to, 67; and Northcliffe's final illness, 786, 790; and the search for a clear fiscal policy, 899
- Rothschild, Edmond James de: 657
- Rothschild, Mrs Leopold: 786
- Rothschild, Lord (of the Balfour Declaration): 621 n. 2, 644
- Rumbold, Sir Horace: in Warsaw, 431, 433; in Constantinople, 436 n. 1; and the Chanak crisis, 820, 821, 825, 837, 842-3, 845-6, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 856, 857-8, 860, 861-2
- Runciman, Sir Walter (later 1st Baron): his 'ill-gotten gains', 169-70
- Ruppin, Arthur: 569
- Russell, General Sir Andrew: 147
- Russia: anxiety of political situation in, 14; despatch of guns to, 40; opens peace negotiations with Germany, 66 n. 1; has no more claim on Britain, 75; dominates Churchill's work at the War Office throughout 1919 and much of 1920, 219-400 and 412-42; and the Arabs, 562; possible 'economic reorganization' of, 760; Churchill's struggle to prevent full British recognition of, 775-85; and the Chanak crisis, 842, 844; effect of 'that little set of Communist criminals' on, 915. See also index entry for 'Bolsheviks'
- Rutenberg, Pinhas: his electrical power scheme, 536, 539, 543, 573, 584, 620, 633-4, 642-3, 647, 648, 651-9
- Sacher, Harry: on Britain's future in Palestine, 571-2, 631
- Sacher, Miriam: 639
- Sackville-West, General C. J.: 88-9, 100, 252
- Salim ben Mubarak: 514
- Salisbury, 4th Marquess of: 855
- Salmon, Captain G. H.: murdered, 494
- Salmond, Major-General (Sir) J. M.: 205, 206, 216, 544, 855
- Salvidge, Sir Archibald: 694
- Samuel, Edwin (2nd Viscount): 651
- Samuel, Herbert: his being a Jew a disability, 176-7; sent to Palestine, 485; Churchill defends, 513-14; 'King' at Jerusalem, 514; warned of Churchill's 'weakness', 520; Churchill decides to visit, 522, 534; and the Cairo Conference, 535, 552-5; and Churchill's visit to Palestine, 558, 559-61; Arabs critical of, 563; and Jewish soldiers, 569-70; and the Desert Air Scheme, 580; and Churchill's Palestine policy from April 1921 to October 1922, 582-3, 584-7, 588-9, 615, 617-18, 621, 622, 623-4, 631-4, 636-7, 638, 640, 645-6, 647-8, 662
- San Remo: and trade with Russia, 391; Allied negotiations at, 482; and the Jewish National Home, 624
- Sandilands, General H. G.: suppresses mutiny, 192
- Sapicha, Eustace: 421
- Sassoon, Sir Philip: 31, 80, 140, 204, 450, 487, 507-8, 509, 520, 582, 588, 752, 778, 781, 783, 786, 788, 795, 840, 890
- Sassoon, Siegfried: Churchill recites poems of, 140
- Savinkov, Boris V.: Churchill 'much impressed by', 361-2; wants to cross into Soviet territory, 422, 431-2, 433; Bolsheviks apparently reconciled to, 760-1
- Savory, Captain R. A. (later General Sir Reginald): in Siberia, 286
- Sazonov, Sergei D.: 285
- Scavenius, H. R.: 225
- Scott, Colonel A. J. L.: Churchill's pilot, 208-10, 211
- Scott, Charles Prestwich: and Churchill's desire for Cabinet office, 11; Churchill rebukes, 875
- Scott, General (Sir) T. E.: 534, 552
- Scrymgeour, Edwin: seeks women's vote, 174; 'our old friend', 877; sees Churchill as the future head of the Fascist party, 879; 'his persistency',

- Scrymgeour, Edwin—continued
 881; defeats Churchill at the 1922 Election, 887
- Seely, J. E. B.: on Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 30; takes charge of the Tank Board, 72; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 94, 96-7; and Churchill's visit to Hendon aerodrome, 114; and German shells, 133-4; and Tanks, 147; represents Churchill at Dundee, 173; Churchill champions, 177-8; Churchill's Under-Secretary of State for Air, 197, 198, 202, 204, 205, 207-8, 212; resigns, 213-14
- Selborne, 2nd Earl of: 162
- Sforza, Count: 836
- Shackleton, Sir David: 306
- Shakespeare, (Sir) Geoffrey: 673, 892
- Shakespeare, William: misquoted, 99
- Shepherd's Pie: Churchill's description of, 138
- Sheridan, Clare: 604
- Sherwood, Frances: attacked at Amritsar, 402
- Shibly al-Jamal: 625-7; on 'the necessity of killing Jews', 645
- Shortt, Edward: and Ireland, 457, 470, 665, 733
- Shuckburgh, (Sir) John: 263 n. 1; advises Churchill, 512; becomes Head of Churchill's Middle East Department, 524, 527, 528 n. 1; his advice to Churchill, 536, 538, 615, 622, 633, 636, 638, 639-41, 642-6, 651; and Churchill's Iraq policy, 796, 798, 814-15
- Shuttleworth, Colonel (Sir) D. I.: 824, 829, 835
- Sidebotham, Herbert: and Transjordan, 583-4; and Churchill's oratorical powers, 599
- Simpson, Professor J.: 263 n. 1
- Sinclair, Sir Archibald Henry: Churchill confides in, 1-3, 4-5, 13, 14, 62-3; Churchill visits, 70; Churchill describes his flight mishap to, 118; praises Churchill's speech of 4 July 1918, 123-4; with Churchill in France, Oct. 1918, 154-5; with Churchill at Dundee, Nov. 1918, 172; with Churchill at the Colonial Office, 515, 534, 585, 615-16, 635, 646-7, 669, 798, 804, 824, 837; and the death of Churchill's daughter, 611-12; and Clementine Churchill's health, 767; Churchill gives a polo pony to, 781 n. 1
- Sinclair, Captain H. F. P.: Director of Naval Intelligence, 425, 428
- Sklianski, E. M.: 296
- Smith, Frederick Edwin (later Lord Birkenhead): Churchill's friendship with, 13; and the armistice, 166; his political future, 177; and Churchill's air policy, 203; and Churchill's defence scheme, 212; urges Churchill not to resign, 438-9; supports an Anglo-Soviet agreement, 440; and Ireland, 455; spends weekend 'amid the sunshine', 520; gives up drink, 525, 539; 'half inclined' to support Churchill, 582; and the death of Churchill's mother, 605; supports Balfour Declaration, 650 n. 2; and the Irish negotiations of 1921 and 1922, 667, 669, 672-3, 675-6, 686, 698, 724; Bonar Law hostile to, 762; and the Geddes Committee, 768-9; and Lloyd George's desire to recognize Soviet Russia, 775-85; Tory Under-Secretaries 'scolded by', 788; and the growing Conservative hostility to Lloyd George, 794-5; urges complete withdrawal from Iraq, 806; and the Chanak crisis, 841, 844, 860; and the fall of the Coalition, 863, 864; and Churchill's election campaign of October 1922, 866; receives no office in Bonar Law's administration, 870; 'no use at all' at Dundee, 880
- Smuts, General: a word of warning from, 34-5; 'cautious', 81; describes the Bolshevik 'danger', 226; and Zionism, 619; and Ireland, 665, 666; and the Chanak crisis, 829

- Smyrna: occupied by Greece, 472-3, 479-80, 487, 503, 519; Turks drive Greeks westwards towards, 820, 821, 825; Turkish Ministers meet at, 832
- Smyth, Colonel G. F.: shot dead, 456
- Sokolow, Nahum: 543, 570, 589, 628
- Somerset, Major (later Lord Raglan): 554, 650 n. 2
- Somme, battle of: Churchill describes difficulties for MPs who fought at, 5; Churchill warns against repeating tactics of, 8; Churchill contrasts Dardanelles campaign with, 10; Churchill visits, 47; steel waste as a result of, 60; Germans recapture battlefield of, 85, 86; reflections on, 139; British recapture battlefield of, 141
- Sonnino, Sidney: and the Bolsheviks, 243, 245, 247-8, 255
- Spender, J. A.: 345-6, 912
- Spiers, General Edward Louis (later Sir Edward Spears): and the German breakthrough of March-April 1918, 80, 88-9, 91, 100, 103, 105; and Churchill's attitude to the Bolsheviks, 235; and Churchill's train, 385; Churchill's support for, 772; supports Churchill at Dundee during the 1922 election, 875, 878, 882, 885
- Spoor, Benjamin: 410
- Squire, J. C.: 149-50
- Stamfordham, Lord: 579, 702, 713, 870, 891
- Steel: its contribution to victory, 45; shortage of, 60; and Tanks, 73
- Stern, Colonel (Sir) Albert: 136
- Stettinius, E. R.: 136-7
- Stevenson, Frances Louise: finds Churchill 'very sulky', 16; on Lloyd George's need for Churchill, 18; and Churchill's Russian policy, 371, 372, 374; and Churchill's relationship with Lloyd George, 581, 582; and Churchill's Turkish policy, 610; and Churchill's criticisms of Sir Eric Geddes, 769; and Churchill's defence of the 'old world', 914
- Strickland, General Sir E.: 471
- 'Stunt': Churchill seeks definition of, 139
- Sutherland, 5th Duke of: 524, 613-14, 650 n. 2
- Sutherland, (Sir) William: 137, 276, 402-3, 410-11, 430, 508
- Sydenham, Lord: and Zionism, 638, 639, 649-50, 653-4, 660-2
- Sykes, Major-General Sir Hugh: and civil aviation, 200, 201, 202, 206, 214-16
- Tanks: 16, 17, 38, 46, 55, 57, 60-1, 62, 72-4, 76, 109, 119-22, 126-7, 131, 132, 133-4, 136, 144-5; Churchill 'a Tank juggernaut', 910
- Taxation: Churchill's views on, 898
- Tchaikowsky, N. V.: 284, 285, 286, 658 n. 1
- Tel-Aviv: Churchill's visit to, 572-3; electrical plans for, 584
- Tereschenko, N. I.: 292-3
- Thomas, J. H.: 185, 834 n. 1
- Thompson, W. H.: Churchill's detective, 465, 739, 879, 885
- Thomson, Sir Basil: 428, 464-5, 466
- Thomson, D. C.: Churchill's denunciation of, 885-6
- Thomson, Major-General: at Baku, 234 n. 1
- Thwaites, General (Sir) William: and Britain's intervention against the Bolsheviks, 238-9, 279, 388, 396; and the proposed expulsions of Krassin and Kamenev, 423, 424, 428, 429; and Turkey, 498
- Tilden, Philip: and Chartwell, 876
- Tillett, Ben: 834 n. 1
- Trafalgar, battle of: 914
- Transjordan: 502-3, 515, 524, 538, 540-1, 552, 560-1, 576-8, 583
- Treaty of Sévres: Turks dismayed by, 482; Churchill critical of, 485-6; signed, 488; and Armenia, 497 n. 1; criticized, 498, 501, 519; defended, 502; still unrevised, 796; and the 'neutral zones' in Turkey, 821; inoperative, 859
- Treaty of Versailles: Churchill urges 'early revision' of, 384; Poland the

- Treaty of Versailles—continued
 'lynch-pin' of, 417; Churchill advocates 'profound revision' of, 427; the Balfour Declaration 'an integral part of', 653
- Trenchard, Air-Marshal Sir Hugh (later Viscount): Churchill telephones, 199; offers his resignation, 203; his resignation refused, 204, 205; his work at the Air Ministry, 206, 208, 216-18; and Britain's withdrawal from Russia, 380; and the Middle East, 494, 534, 544-5, 546, 547, 550, 577, 580; and Ireland, 455, 725; and Air Force economy, 769; and the Iraq Treaty, 800-1, 803, 810, 811; and the Chanak crisis, 843
- Trevor, Colonel A. P.: 534
- Trotsky: War Cabinet's threat of reprisals against, 225; House of Commons attitude towards, 276; atrocities committed by, 278; 'international conceptions' of, 286; on need to take the offensive against Kolchak, 296; his victory envisaged, 310; his ruin 'indispensable', 321; and the 'fate of the entire Revolution', 325; undertakes defence of Petrograd, 348, 350, 352, 354; and Bolshevik negotiations with the Poles, 358; his likely triumph, 360; Churchill speaks of theories of, 365; and the Russo-Polish war, 416; and the IRA, 715; and the Russian famine, 775; has 'the power to murder those whom he cannot convince', 878; Churchill summarizes the aims of, 903
- Tuam, Archbishop of: 467-8, 469-70
- Tudor, General H. H.: and Churchill's visits to France in 1918, 77, 79, 155-8; and Ireland, 456, 458-9, 460, 471; and Palestine, 635, 868; praises Churchill as a chief, 894
- Tulin, Abraham: 623
- Turkey: future of, 71; surrenders, 158; must be dismembered, 171; failure to reach a settlement with, 195; national recovery of, 472-3; Churchill's attitude towards, 473, 477-8, 479, 480; and
- Turkey—continued
 the San Remo decisions, 482, 484; Churchill urges peace with, 485-6; 'a decadent race', 488; Churchill reiterates plea for peace with, 497, 499-501, 503-4, 513, 519, 535-6, 540, 590-2, 598, 600-1, 609-11; dispute over the origins of Britain's war with, 752-3; Churchill seeks 'a good settlement' with, 807; takes the offensive against Greek forces in Anatolia, 816-17, 819; and the Chanak crisis, 820-62, 864, 869
- Twentieth Century: Churchill's melancholy reflections on, 915
- Tyrant: Churchill's definition of, 905-6
- Unemployment: Churchill's plea concerning, 898-9
- United States: her troops needed on the western front, 16-17, 34, 48, 50; 'mythical dreams' about, 80; urgent need for troops from, 81-2, 90-1, 100, 102-4, 110, 119; 'the splendour' of her manhood, 122; her 'good press', 133; her first offensive on the western front, 148; and the Allied intervention against the Bolsheviks, 221, 224, 276, 302, 309, 314, 319, 368; and the Russo-Polish war, 416; France 'abandoned' by, 427; and Ireland, 446, 456, 664, 669, 696, 706, 708, 713, 719; 'uphill work' to make an enthusiastic speech about, 530; and the Palestine-Mesopotamia Mandates, 592, 627; Churchill proposes an Alliance with, 607; and the possible 'economic reorganization' of Russia, 760; decides not to recognize Soviet Russia, 776; makes difficulties for Britain in Iraq, 806, 814; and the Chanak crisis, 858
- Vane-Tempest, Lord H.: dies, leaving Churchill a legacy, 521
- Venizelos, E.: 479-80, 487, 495, 497, 498, 500, 535, 840-1, 842, 858
- Verchocq, Chateau: Churchill's headquarters in France, 113, 131-41, 142-9, 154-8

- Vernon, R. V.: 632, 658 n. 1, 801
- Victoria, Queen: palmy days of, 914
- War: Churchill wants 'direction' of, 1; and Churchill's 'impulse & gift', 2; its 'simple animal life', 4; 'weighs heavy on us all', 13, 911; its lessons 'so cruelly written', 61; the Germans 'bored' by, 70; 'Violent counsels & measures must rule', 82; Churchill's desire 'to take part in', 112; 'the normal occupation of man', 151; 'burdens grievous to be borne', 166; 'nothing is too good' for, 171; 'its iron slavery', 912; its 'fearful agencies of destruction', 913-14
- War profits: Churchill's desire to tax, 63, 169-70, 898
- Ward, Colonel John: 224, 254, 266, 355
- Wardrop, (Sir) John: 343, 360
- Waring, S. J.: 124
- Waterloo, battle of: 914
- Watson, Colonel C. F.: 730
- Wedgwood, Josiah: and Bolshevik atrocities, 276; and atrocities committed by the anti-Bolsheviks, 293; asks Churchill a personal favour, 297; denounces the anti-Bolsheviks, 355; and the Amritsar debate, 403
- Weir, 1st Baron (later Viscount): 138, 139
- Weizmann, Dr Chaim: 484, 540-1, 543, 570, 617, 618, 621-2, 623-4, 627-8, 631-2, 636, 638, 639-41, 644, 647-8, 660, 662
- Wellton, Bishop: 891-2
- Wells, H. G.: in dispute with Churchill, 441-2
- West, George Cornwallis: 604
- Westminster, 2nd Duke of: 60-1, 79, 86, 88, 101, 103, 108, 154, 384, 428, 459, 780, 788, 791
- Weygand, Maxime: 93
- Whitley, J. H.: 721-2
- Wilhelm II, German Emperor: 164, 166, 342
- Williamson, Lord: 787
- Willoughby de Broke, 19th Baron: almost wishes he were a Jew, 650
- Wilson, Colonel (Sir) A. T.: 492, 497, 532
- Wilson, General (later Field-Marshal) Sir Henry: 'it always amuses me to talk to Winston', 20; and Churchill's return to the Cabinet, 24; and Tanks, 60; finds Churchill 'full of ideas', 61; and Churchill's Tank policy, 73; and Churchill's gas policy, 73-4; and the German breakthrough of March 1918, 80, 81, 82, 83-4, 86, 91-2, 103; and the munition factories' strikes of July 1918, 127-8; and the British offensive of Aug. 1918, 131; and the armistice, 164, 166; and Churchill's move to the War Office, 179; and the demobilization crisis, 181-4, 185, 187-9, 191-2; and a possible Defence Ministry, 212; and British policy towards the Bolsheviks, 230-1, 233-5, 236, 240-2; accompanies Churchill to Paris, 243-56; and Churchill's policy towards Russia, 257-397, 905; and the Russo-Polish war, 414, 415; and the proposed expulsion of Krassin and Kamenev, 423, 425, 426, 428; and Ireland, 445, 447, 450-2, 454, 456, 458-9, 460-1, 462-3, 465, 466, 470-1, 665, 666, 684, 685, 687, 689, 694, 695, 696, 698, 703, 705, 706, 709, 721, 726, 729; and Turkey, 477, 479, 483, 486-7, 498, 577-8, 590-2; and Mesopotamia, 490-1, 493-4, 496, 504; and Churchill's departure from the War Office, 506; and Churchill's 'bad luck' being in Cairo, 555-6; on Churchill's poor military judgement, 582; and Palestine, 622, 648; murdered, 733; his State funeral, 735; his summary of Churchill's character, 383, 906-7
- Wilson, Sir Leslie: and the fall of the Coalition, 863-4
- Wilson, Woodrow: Allied appeals to, 90, 99, 100-2; and the German surrender, 154; and Allied policy towards the Bolsheviks, 240, 243-6, 255, 268, 276

- Wimborne, Cornelia Lady: her advice, 30; and Lady Randolph's death, 604
- Wimborne, 2nd Baron (later Viscount): and the possibility of a negotiated peace, 75; and Lady Randolph's death, 605
- Windsor Castle: Churchill's embarrassment at, 391
- Winterton, 6th Earl of: 527, 599, 788 n. 1
- Wodehouse, Lord (later 3rd Earl of Kimberley): 789, 790, 875, 876, 879
- Wolfe, Humbert: 'a blow personal to ourselves', 889
- Wolmer, Viscount (later 3rd Earl of Selborne): 720-1
- Wood, Captain (later General) G. N.: in South Russia, 358, 367
- Worthington-Evans, Sir Laming: 33, 39, 190, 399, 519-20, 523 n. 1, 529, 555-6, 577, 665, 669, 698, 700, 723, 727, 731, 799-800, 802, 806; and the Chanak crisis, 825, 826, 829, 834, 836 n. 2, 838, 840, 841, 843, 845
- Wrangel, Count A. M. H.: 240
- Wrangel, General: succeeds Denikin in the Crimea, 389, 391-2, 399; Britain withdraws support from, 412-13, 414; Churchill wants to resume help to, 420; his possible successes, 426, 431, 432; his possible destruction, 433; evacuates the Crimea, 423, 436, 438; Churchill's unwise reliance on, 761
- Young, Major Hubert: and the Middle East, 512 n. 3, 518, 519; his services 'essential', 527; obstinate, 528 n. 1; 'a very clever man', 534; his advice on Palestine and Mesopotamia, 538, 549, 552, 580, 585 n. 1, 586-7, 610, 615, 618, 620, 623, 624, 625-6, 631, 632, 636, 650; and the final negotiations for the Iraq Treaty, 798, 799, 808, 816, 824
- Younger, Sir George: and Conservative distrust of Churchill, 25-6
- Ypres salient: Churchill visits, 69-70; overrun by the Germans, 106; Churchill revisits, 158
- Yudenitch, General N. N.: 276, 287, 288, 292-3, 307, 321-7, 336, 346, 348, 350-2, 354, 356, 359, 362, 366, 367-8, 422, 438, 904
- Zionism: Churchill's interest in, 484-5; Millerand critical of, 513-14; and possibility of 'controversy' arising from, 552; and Jewish self-defence, 555; and Transjordan, 540-1, 543, 561, 577; Arab 'hatred' of, 563-4, 591; its achievements defended, 567-8; Churchill praises, 568-9, 570, 584, 588; linked by Arabs with Bolshevism, 586-7; and Churchill's Palestine policy, 588-9, 597, 615-62; 'will fail', 650; brings to Palestine 'a good gift', 655